Quota of 1,000 Pints of Blood From Newton Met Despite Blizzard

Large Number of Citizens Go To Boston and Donate Blood for Service Men; Community Spirit Praised

In spite of the blizzard last week Newton more than met its quota of 1000 pints of blood in two days, Jan. 28 and 29, it has been announced by Mrs. C. Terry Collins, chairman of the Newton Blood Donor Committee. Led by Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Newton citizens went in a constant stream to the Blood Center. Not only were there few cancellations of appointments, but during the height of the storm people continued to telephone to arrange to go to Boston.

The Raytheon Corporation, under the leadership of Mr. Edward N. Brown, registered about 400 employees to go to the Center. On both Jan. 28 and 29, the Red Cross Motor Corps took many of them into Boston by convey.

Security Mills, under Mrs. Emily Murphy, signed up 31 employees, one-third of their personnel. Judge Philip Rubenstein, one of the executives, arranged that they should be paid in full for the time taken out to give their blood.

"These are just two instances in a community that responded magnificently to a cause directly benefitting our fighting men and women on all fronts," said Mrs. Collins. "However, our task is not over. The citizens of Newton must continue to give their blood for plasma. Our real goal is a 100 per cent coverage of the city."

Throughout the Newton days, a canteen unit assisted at the Center in serving refreshments to the donors, and another unit was on hand at the Chapter House until late at night to give coffee and sandwiches to the workers. The Motor Corps gave half-hourly transportation service to and from Boston on both days, driving through the worst of the storm on Thursday night.

Assisting Mrs. Collins in lining up donors was Arthur A. Hunt, Past Commander of the Newton American Legion. Mrs. Walter Webling, Jr., chairman of the Staff Assistance Corps, helped her with the numerous details of organization. Newton canteen volunteers at the Blood Center were Mrs. Harry W. Cole, Mrs. Gilbert Tolman, Mrs. Fred G. Sandford, Mrs. Arnold Barker, Mrs. Lawrence Levin, Mrs. Milton Levenson, Mrs.

Donald Biggs, Mrs. Sidney Wiggin, Mrs. Philip Beach, Mrs. Oswald Getzfred, Mrs. Robert Rose and Mrs. Ralph Curran.

At the Chapter House on Thursday was a canteen group under Mrs. Olive Mahon of Newtonville, assisted by two Junior Canteen members from the high school, Jean Ashton and Martha Burney. The canteen unit on Friday at the House was under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Gay of Newtonville. She was assisted by Lorain Smith and Phyllis Burke, both Junior Volunteers.

Motor Corps drivers were Mrs. Stanley Stedfast, captain of the Corps, Mrs. Robert Kennard, Mrs. D. Morley Lodge, Mrs. Gilbert Harrison, Mrs. Jack London, Mrs. Philip K. Brown, Mrs. Eli Brilant, Miss Olive Webster, Mrs. L. C. Doyle, Miss Grace Cummings, Mrs. Elliot Fleisher, Mrs. Earl Irons, Mrs. Joseph Marksville, Mrs. Lloyd Allen, Mrs. Andrew Sides, Mrs. Ethel Harbison, Mrs. Charles S. Draper, Mrs. G. E. Pratt, Mrs. Edward Cohen, Mrs. Kenneth C. Tiffin, Mrs. James Farrell, Mrs. Maurice Hussey, Mrs. Frederick E. Woodruff, Mrs. Robert Ridell, Mrs. Harry L. Sutton, Mrs. Francis Saxo, Mrs. S. Marsona Butts, Mrs. Stuart Koster, Mrs. Rose Badger, Mrs. Langdon Parsons, Mrs. Earl Davis, Mrs. Edwin Dresser, Mrs. Francis King, Mrs. William H. McAdams, Mrs. Richard L. Kenney, Mrs. Morris Goldstein, Mrs. Sidney Gutlin, Mrs. Alan Reed, Miss Ruthie Smith and Mrs. Warren Ames.

CITY EMPLOYEE BURNED BY FLOW EXPLOSION

Louis DeSimone, a city employee, of 40 Margaret rd., Newton Highlands, was burned about the hands and his hair was singed when his clothing became ignited by the explosion of gasoline in a tractor snow plow at the corner of Beacon and Union sts., Newton Centre, on Saturday night. DeSimone leaped into a snowbank to extinguish the flames in his clothing which saved him from serious burns.

The fire department was summoned and it took nearly an hour to extinguish the fire in the tractor.

Testimonial Is Given Deputy Chief John E. Corcoran

A testimonial was tendered to Deputy Chief John E. Corcoran at Engine House 10 on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, when he was presented with a Governor Winthrop desk.

About 60 members of the Newton Fire Department were present. Chief John L. Keating was master of ceremonies and Captain Egbert Murphy of Engine 28, Boston, was the principal speaker. Entertainment was furnished by Francis Cook of Newton and John Dunleavy, who played the piano for the group singing.

Lt. William H. Fitzgerald was in charge of arrangements. Among the guests at the head table was Mr. Daniel Corcoran, a retired fireman, and father of Deputy Chief Corcoran.

Permit Issued For Single Dwellings

A permit has been issued by the Newton Public Buildings department to Sherman J. L. Brown to build single dwellings at 100 and 106 Fordham rd., West Newton, at an estimated cost of $5,000 each.

A permit was also issued for alterations at the plant of the Raytheon Production Corporation, 55 Chapel st., Newton, to cost $4,000. The permit was obtained by the First National Bank of Boston.

Public Welfare Returns $69,417 Un-Spent Balance

The Newton Public Welfare Department has been able to return to the city treasury from its 1942 budget appropriation an unexpended balance of $69,417, according to the report presented to the Board of Public Welfare by James P. Reynolds, director of public welfare in Newton.

The surplus included $51,054 that remained in the general relief account, out of an original budget appropriation of $145,000; $2865 from an appropriation of $172,000 for old age assistance; $1056 from a budget figure of $90,000 for aid to dependent children, and $6300 from budget appropriation of $15,000 for care of sick poor.

The steady increase in employment during the past year is responsible for the decrease in welfare expenses. In December, 1942, there were 182 cases on the general relief roll, most of whom were people unable to work, and the amount expended for this form of relief was $7147. In the corresponding month in 1941 there were 288 cases and the amount expended was $10,457.

OPA Orders City To Convert to Coal

The Office of Petroleum Administration has ordered the City of Newton to convert the oil heating system at Police Headquarters, West Newton and the Street Dept. garage on Crafts st., Newtonville, to coal, but because of the work involved and the delay in delivery of the necessary parts, it is not expected that the conversion will be completed for several weeks.

The annual saving in oil at police headquarters will be about 24,000 gallons and at the Street Department garage, 40,000 gallons. The estimated cost of conversion is $500 for each building. It will also be necessary to hire men to fire the coal heaters.

A similar conversion is expected to be made by the County in the Newton District Court Building adjoining police headquarters.

Public Building Commissioner Arthur Campbell has announced that the use of oil for heating the library portion of the Park Hill School will be discontinued. The rest of the building is heated by coal.

The Newton Rationing Board which has jurisdiction over the Newtonville Library building because it burns less than 10,000 gallons of oil per year has made no decision on the question of converting to coal in that building. A decision is pending on the converting of the police department garage where the heat has been shut off except in the repair shop section.

The city incinerator is the only other public building where oil is used for heating, and there it is only used for heating the office.

WINS SECOND PLACE IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Aldermen Confirm Appointment Of Fire Chief Keating

Also Take Action on Many Requests For Permits of Various Nature; Pass Resolution on Members

The Newton Board of Aldermen at its meeting on Monday night unanimously confirmed the appointment by Mayor Paul M. Goddard of John L. Keating as chief of the Newton Fire Department.

The resignation of Alderman George E. Rawson of Ward 7, who has been elected a member of the State Legislature, was accepted with regret by the board who passed a resolution commending the service of Mr. Rawson and of Maxwell P. Gaddis, who recently resigned as Alderman from Ward 3. The resolution introduced by Alderman Carroll J. Hoffman read as follows:

"Since the beginning of the new year this Board has sustained an unusual loss by the resignation of two of its older and valued members—Maxwell P. Gaddis, (1937-1943) former chairman of the Finance and Traffic Committee, and George E. Rawson, (1934-1943) chairman of the Committee on Claims and Rules.

"The former has made a name for himself by his work on our traffic problems and highway safety that will long be appreciated by his fellow citizens.

"The latter has made a conspicuous and lasting contribution to the city's welfare by his work on zoning problems and a revision of the building code.

"The departure of these two members of our Board should not be allowed to take place without recognition of their unusual public service.

"Therefore, be it resolved that we are indeed sorry that Maxwell P. Gaddis and George E. Rawson are retiring from this Board, and we know their parting will be a real loss and will leave difficult places to be filled.

"We extend to them our best wishes for continued good health and happiness.

"Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be incorporated with our records and that one be sent to each of the retiring aldermen."

A successor to Mr. Rawson will be elected at the next meeting of the Board. President Charles B. Floyd appointed Alderman Henderson Inches as chairman of the Claims and Rules committee.

The board also confirmed the appointment of C. Adrian Sawyer as a member of the Board of Appeals on Building Laws for a term of three years.

A petition for a permit to convert a single dwelling at 56 Sumner st., Newton Centre, to a two family dwelling, was rejected by the board after a hearing held by the Claims and Rules committee. The committee had received a petition signed by 25 residents opposing the petition and practically all of the objectors were present when the chairman, Henderson Inches, called for a show of hands by the opponents. A letter signed by several Newton Centre residents favoring the petition was also presented to the committee.

Peter Turchon of 59 Wachusett rd., speaking for the petitioner, Homes Inc., of which he is the treasurer, said that he had purchased the property under the impression that it was a two family house, and produced a letter from the previous owner to show that it had been used as a two family house. The board voted to deny the petition, only two members, Alderman James P. Akins and John E. Barwise, voting in favor of it.

A petition of William Shriberg for renewal of the license of the Nonantum Used Auto Parts Company of 73-77 West st., Newton, was also denied by the board. Because the license had been in the name of another member of the family it was necessary for Shriberg to apply for a new license to conduct the business under his own name. The firm operates a large salvage establishment.

Chief Michael T. Hughes of the Police Department had recommended that the license be granted and Alderman Kenneth Prior spoke in favor of the petition calling attention to the good record of the petitioner in the past five years and to the fact that he had received a letter of commendation from the salvage department. Alderman James P. Akins also favored the petition saying that the business had been in the family for 35 years and he felt the petitioner should not be deprived of the license.

Alderman Henderson Inches and Warner Eustis contended that the board was obligated to reject the petition of facts disclosed at a committee meeting held on the matter last month. Alderman John Temperley declared that the board was not taking anything away as the previous license had not been in the name of the petitioner. Alderman Hoffman was of the same opinion.

The petition of Donald C. Ross for two taxi licenses at Bowers st., Newtonville, was granted, also petitions of Earl F. Baker for an additional taxi at 1170 1-2 Walnut st., Newton Highlands, and Russell O. Viles for a first-class taxi license at 346 Centre st., Newton.

The Auburndale Review Club
The annual guest night of the Auburndale Review Club was held Tuesday evening, February 2nd, in the chapel of the Congregational Church.

Mrs. Walter Amesbury, president of the club, welcomed the guests in her usual charming manner.

Since the club is studying China this year, the decorating committee created quite a Chinese atmosphere by using lovely Chinese rugs, draperies and banners. The flowers, although artificial, were none the less effective. They were dainty cherry blossoms from a Peking Bazaar, loaned by Mrs. Arthur Robinson, who lived for some years in Peking.

The entertainment, planned and arranged by Miss Helen Calder, chairman of the program committee, was Chinese too. Two short moving pictures were shown. One depicted the scenic beauty of the Burma Road. The other was a very delightful and entertaining picture of Chinese children at play.

A social hour followed the program, arranged by Mrs. Philip Chase, chairman of the social committee. The refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served in the church parlor from attractively decorated tables.

The club enjoys this one social event of the year when outside friends are invited to join them in a pleasant evening together.

Resume of 1942 Work Presented

Board of Directors of Rebecca Pomroy House
Hear Reports

At the January meeting of the Board of Directors of the Rebecca Pomroy House, a member agency of the Newton Community Chest, a resume of the work of 1942 was presented.

During the year there was a total attendance of over 19,000 men, women and children at various clubs, classes and special meetings.

The Nursery School has increased in numbers and attendance each year since its organization. Under the direction of Miss Betty Brooks and Mrs. Ruth Tedesco who work together with parents, these youngsters have their first taste of social living.

The women of the community are helping in the war effort in every way they can. Advantage is taken of the Red Cross Courses so that they may better feed their families and learn how to take care of people in emergencies.

Work is done in sewing, knitting and some of these women donated blood to the Boston Blood Donors Center. All work and no play would be drab, particularly when a number of them work in defense industries, so that the program is varied with study, play and work. Attendance at classes and clubs has increased over 150 per cent for the women.

It was rather surprising to find that the wardens of the district used the house to such an extent that their total was over 300.

The children come in goodly numbers to the afternoon meetings where they are supervised in groups and classes which meet their interests and abilities. Many of the boys and girls have parents who are working and those parents find ease of mind knowing their children are in wholesome and helpful surroundings.

Any influence upon the lives of the people in the community because of their affiliation with the Rebecca Pomroy House is due to the interest and generosity of the many workers who give freely of their time and thought. A number of volunteers come week after week during the season from September to June and their regularity and guidance means much to those with whom they meet.

Exhibition of Paintings at the N'ville Library

A Memorial Exhibition of Paintings, unusual in its significance, is to be held in the Newtonville Public Library Building through the month of February.

It is a father and son exhibition, which includes architectural renderings as a reminder that the name of Donald Robb is a familiar one to architects and creative artists throughout the English-speaking world. While countless thousands appreciate his rich contribution to the development of the Washington Cathedral, his neighbors and friends throughout
New England glory in his smaller masterpiece, the Newtonville Library building, which brightens the workaday world of all the Newtons.

To those who knew him and loved him for his great goodwill and his unshakable integrity, these works of his and of his son,
Malcolm C. Robb, speak in an endoring sense of kinship that unites the tough fibers of the human heart with the creative forces of Nature.

So as sympathetic visitors ponder and appreciate these transcriptions of Nature's varying moods in our own regions and in far countries, they may well paraphrase the words of the great and good poet, Thomas Hardy, who has the changing details of every countryside: "They were men who noticed such things."

The exhibition will be open week days from 9 to 6—Mondays from 9 to 9, and closed Sundays and holidays.

Josiah Eaton Bacon, 22, of West Newton, Mass., has completed his flight training and has been commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve, it was announced at the U. S. Naval Air Station in Jacksonville, Fla.

The West Newton flier was presented his Navy "wings" and commissioned by Captain J. D. Price, commandant of the Jacksonville Naval Air Station at brief ceremonies.

Ensign Bacon completed elimination training at the Naval Air Station, Squantum, Mass., and was sent to Jacksonville for advanced flight training instruction last August.

Since Navy pilots fly over uncharted water-ways, Bacon's Jacksonville studies in celestial navigation and communications were exacting. Combat flying demands professional skill in all branches of training. Proficiency at the gunnery range, in the classrooms and in actual flight was necessary to give him a thorough background in aeronautics.

The young officer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bacon, of 85 Temple st., West Newton. He attended Fessenden, Andover, Browne & Nichols, and Park Air College.

Pvt. Maurice W. Tidmarsh of 276 Church st., Newton, Mass., was graduated this week from the Aviation Mechanics' course at Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., Technical Training Command.

Pvt. Tidmarsh is a graduate of Northeastern University Law School. He was employed by the Second National Bank, of Boston before entering the service on Aug. 29, at Fort Devens.

Ensign William B. Squier, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Squier, who is a pilot on a patrol-bomber with the Atlantic Fleet, has just completed a ten-day leave at his home in Newton Centre.

Gene Daniels of 29 Ellison rd., Newton Centre and a graduate of Newton High School, class of '42, has enlisted in the Navy and is now in training at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Newport, R. I.

Aviation Cadet William L. Stark, Jr., 51 Caroline pk., Waban, Mass., and son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Stark of Waban, is now a student in the basic section of the Central Instructor's School at Maxwell Field, Ala. He is one of the hand picked few selected from graduates of the Pre-Flight School for pilots of the great southeast Training center to become an instructor with the Army Air Forces.

To be chosen for this assignment, Cadet Stark had to pass rigid tests to prove his qualifications. While here he is being tutored by especially adept pilots.

He is a graduate of the Newton High School and attended Bowdoin College from 1939 to 1941. He was a member of the Bowdoin track team.

Before entering the Army he was a machine operator in Boston.

Pvt. James H. McGourty of 58 Cherry pl., West Newton, was graduated this week from the Aviation Mechanics' course at Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., a branch of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

Pvt. McGourty was graduated from Newton High School. He was inducted at Fort Devens, Mass., on Sept. 1, 1942. Before entering the service he was employed at the Boston Navy Yard.

Pvt. Alexander Zilinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zilinski, 22 Whitelaw rd., West Newton, Mass., was graduated this week from the Aviation Mechanics' course at Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., a branch of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

Pvt. Zilinski was graduated from Newton High School. He was inducted at Fort Devens, Mass., on Aug. 23, 1942. Before entering the service he was a member of the Newton Police Department.

Aviation Cadet John J. Boyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Boyce, of 52 Elm st., West Newton, recently reported to the Greenville Army Flying School, Greenville, Miss., for further flight training.

sion as a Second Lieutenant in the Army Air Forces.

Army Air Forces Aviation Cadet, John E. Hayden, son of Mr. William V. Hayden of 47 Old Farm rd., Newton Centre, is now stationed at the Army Air Forces Basic Flying School, near Walnut Ridge, Ark., a new unit of the vast Southeast Army Air Forces Training Centre. He will pursue courses which will constitute the second phase of his quest for wings and a subsequent commission as a Second Lieutenant.

Prior to his arrival at Walnut Ridge, he received his initial pilot training at Clarksdale, Miss., where he obtained approximately 60 hours in the air in primary training planes.

Auxiliary Esther Mielman, daughter of Mrs. M. Mielman of 23 Beech st., Newton Mass., has begun training in the WAACs at Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

She was immediately assigned to a Receiving Center company for a week's elementary military training.

William Slocum Biscoe, 33, son of Mr. Maurice B. Biscoe, 595 Boylston st., Newton Centre, has completed training in the Medical Administrative Corps Officer Candidate School, Camp Berkeley, Texas, and received a commission as second lieutenant. A graduate of Amherst College, Lt. Biscoe was a teacher in civilian life.

Bluejacket Richard Chester Lillie, 19, 21 Magnolia ave., Newton, Mass., is now enrolled in the Service School for torpedoman's mates at the U. S. Naval Training Station in Great Lakes, Ill. Upon completion of the intensive course, he will be eligible for advancement to a third class petty officer's rating. Selected from this advanced training on the basis of results from a series of aptitude tests given him while in recruit training, he will be classified as "specialist" when assigned to active duty with the U. S. Fleet, or at some other naval shore station.

COLONEL LANG—TROOP COMMANDER

Col. Raymond Lang, formerly rector of St. John's Church, Newtonville, led the Commencement Parade of 389 Chaplains at Harvard University last Saturday, January 30th. This honor falls to the person who led the class in Military and Scholastic achievement. This was the tenth Commencement of the School and the exercises were in charge of Colonel Cleary, Commandant. A regular Army band from the First Service Command furnished music. The Chief of Chaplains of the Canadian Army, Colonel Nelligan was the orator of the day.

Colonel Lang is Senior and Post Chaplain at Camp Edwards, Mass.

The W. C. T. U. greatly appreciate all the help given to them in their recent campaign. The signs placed in front of the 12 churches were a help. We feel that God will greatly reward those churches for their great effort against this curse of humanity, liquor. We thank the churches that gave donations for those that helped in anyway and our Newton papers for their kind help.

A REPORT TO THE PUBLIC In which we review 1942 and ask for your co-operation in the war months ahead

Looking back over the year just ended, we believe a report of our operations is of interest and will be helpful and informative to our many riders in Greater Boston.

As the war effort became more intense, an ever increasing number of persons turned to the "El" for transportation. Last December the greatest number of passengers were carried in any month

In common with all transportation agencies, the Boston Elevated has co-operated with our Government in its conservation programs. As the year 1942 progressed the acute shortages of fuel oil, rubber, and gasoline demanded immediate action.

SAVING 250,000 GALLONS OF FUEL OIL A YEAR

Conversion of oil heating equipment to the use of coal at 11 locations on the railway, including garages, carhouses and lobbies, is saving more than 250,000 gallons of fuel oil on an annual basis.

Complete conversion has been made at all heating plants operated by the railway except at three locations, where only about 4,000 gallons of fuel oil will be used annually.

"GETTING IN THE SCRAP"

In 1942 the railway made available for war purposes more than 24,000 tons of steel, iron and copper scrap. This scrap was made available by the removal of the Atlantic Avenue elevated structure, from abandoned street railway tracks and from the disposal of worn out parts.

SAVING OVER 11,000,000 BUS TIRE MILES

Bus service in duplication of existing rail service was discontinued or curtailed. Bus service furnished on lightly used lines or parts of lines was discontinued or limited to those parts of lines and to those periods of the day when such service was justified under war conditions. The operation of chartered buses for private groups was discontinued except to war plants and for military purposes. The steps taken are saving well over 11,000,000 bus tire miles on an annual basis and are resulting in substantial savings in gasoline.

NEW EQUIPMENT AND REPAIR PARTS DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN

The delivery to any transit company of new cars, buses and trackless trolleys and of repair parts has been sharply limited by the Government. In 1941, anticipating future difficulties in obtaining equipment, many cars and buses which were in storage were reconditioned. By virtue of this timely planning we believe that we face a crucial year able to perform the task of transporting large numbers of people in a war busy metropolitan area.

SAFETY RECORD

We are pleased to report that the Elevated for the sixth time won national recognition for safety by being awarded in 1942 the American Transit Safety Award. We owe the honor for this award to you—our riders —and to the various agencies and organizations working for safety in the community and especially to our employees for their continuous alertness in the safe operation of cars and buses.

A LOOK AHEAD

In 1943 there will be increasing difficulties in obtaining suitable manpower replacements, new equipment and necessary repair parts. There will be crowded cars and buses particularly at rush hours. In this respect we ask your understanding and your active co-operation. Here's how you can make your personal contribution to help meet wartime transportation problems:

FIRST: Plan to make your trip between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. or after 6 p.m. Such planning will leave room for essential war workers to get to and from work by "El". If you can possibly help it, please don't take the "El" between 5 p.m. and 6 p.m.—that's the most crowded time of all.

SECOND: Upon entering a bus or car move away from the doors into the less crowded section. You'll help to speed service.

THIRD: Don't crowd into an already full car or bus. Wait for a less crowded one.

FOURTH: Have exact fare ready. A little foresight on everybody's part will save many precious minutes—save time for everybody.

FIFTH: During the dimout, stop the operator with a hand signal. Bright lights are out for the duration, so you'll be more easily seen if you signal with your hand.

WHEN and where needed, we shall furnish transportation services to the limit of the railway's capacity, keeping always in mind, however, that the order of the day calls for the utmost conservation of all transportation facilities, so vital are they to the successful advancement of war objectives.

WILL CONGRESS PUT POLITICS FIRST?

The Newton League of Women Voters is asking for action from citizens on the McKellar bill now pending before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

This bill, requiring senate confirmation of all government employees who receive more than $4500 per year is a brazen bid for political patronage and would wreck the Civil Service System. Passage of this bill would affect all who have been in government service for years, as well as new employees. Furthermore, they would be appointed for a 4-year term only.

In a press release, the National League points out that under the terms of the measure, "Thousands of positions in Washington and throughout the country would be affected."

"Government employees who have given a lifetime of service to their government in technical and scientific as well as administrative positions would have to cultivate the favor of Senators to keep their jobs after June 30, 1943."

"No new or present employee could be hired in their positions who are not 'cleared' by their Senators, who have not been reviewed by a Congressional Committee, and approved by a majority vote of the Senate."

The statement from the National League concludes "If the Senate takes the time to investigate each one of these thousands of persons carefully, there will be no time to legislate. If it only relies on the recommendation of the Senators from the state where the applicant resides then there can be no purpose other than politics for the move. The principal function of Congress is the making of laws. It has plenty of tough legislative decisions to make, and soon."

The Newton League of Women Voters urges everyone to write to Senators Lodge and Walsh expressing strong opposition to the McKellar bill.

NEWTON JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB

Gems are chosen for four cardinal reasons, beauty, durability, internal cohesion, and rarity. Samuel J. Tyack, gemologist for Shreve, Crump & Lowe Company and a member of the American Gem Society, told the Newton Junior Community Club at the meeting which was held Monday evening, February 1, at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Guests included members of the Newton Community Club and its president, Miss Adelaide B. Ball.

Mr. Tyack said in part: "The cutting of diamonds is a tremendous responsibility on those who cleave the stones, and the largest diamond on record weighs 3,024 carats. Diamonds were first owned because they were harder stones and therefore more durable. The Indians found that it was possible to polish the rough stones, but as man began to study the effect of light as it behaves to solids, facets were cut which gave them world wide impetus." He told of a collection of forty colored diamonds, each having a different tint, and then reviewed the background, cutting and colors of rubies, emeralds, sapphires, opals, aquamarines and garnets.

RESPOND TO FIRES

Engine 3 and 9 and Ladder 2 responded to a call at 1:09 p. m. Friday for a fire in the living room of the home of Henry J. McKinney at 133 Brookline st., Oak Hill. The blaze which was caused by a fireplace was extinguished by the firemen after about an hour's work.

At 8:39 p. m. Friday evening Engine 7 responded to a call for a chimney fire at the home of John Regan at 943 Chestnut st., Newton Upper Falls.

This WEEK, This WORLD

by Ted Friend

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT!... Can there possibly be any connection between Argentine neutrality and the huge sums reported invested and hidden in Argentina by Nazi leaders, including Hitler, Goering and Ribbentrop? As a neutral Argentina could not be legally forced to turn over Nazi criminals, (claiming political asylum) for trial by United Nations' Tribunals!

PRaise FROM THE MASTER, INDEED! Marshal Goering's admission that the Russians perpetrated the cleverest, greatest camouflage in world history when, in Finland, they fought with their poorest weapons and troops and thus confounded their Fascist enemies, at once pays a high tribute to the brilliance of Soviet military leadership and betrays the puerility of the German military caste and its chief stooge, Hitler.

More than any other people in the world the Germans have proven themselves incapable of understanding other peoples, nations and races. This obdurate incapacity to observe and correctly estimate the intellectual, moral and cultural make-up of its world neighbors, which of course stems from its own basic inferiority complex, has led the Germans to repeat mistakes in this war which they so disastrously made in the last war.

The underestimation of Russian military strength resulted in more than a million casualties for the Germans. The belief that Britain would fold up without a fight after the collapse of France gave the British the opportunity to re-arm and frustrate possible invasion. The provocation of the United States brought Germany again into conflict with the industrial power which contributed so greatly to her defeat in the last war. And her cruelty toward Czechoslovakia, Poland, Belgium, France, Norway, Greece and other ravaged people, which repeated her rape of Belgium the last war, assures the German masses of a vengeful punishment which may take several generations to eradicate.

TAKE IT FROM US: Hitler has sent a message to Tokyo urging the Japanese to be especially careful during the month of February because his astrologer has informed him that Japan will be bombed during that period. Another spectacular turn of events will be the Russo-Finnish peace with a reorganization of Finland's government and military set-up. Stalin will announce shortly that Russia will restore the Baltic States to a collective security basis after the war ends. A Jap admiral has been asked to commit hara-kari by Premier Tojo because of the Navy's failure to save the Jap fleet at Guadalcanal. Arnaldo, ousted President of Panama, is in Argentina conferring with Axis sympathizers; he is trying to organize a "Latin-America for Latins" group and may sail for Spain shortly. Washington insiders predict that Army officers commissioned directly from civilian life will be reclassified within the next few months, with a number of reductions in rank.

ONE OF THE MOST STINGING REBUKES doled out to a scrivener in recent years was recently accorded to labor-baiting Westbrook Pegler by the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch. Declaring the printing of his column on the grounds of misrepresentation, the Times-Dispatch declared:

"Mr. Pegler may hate Vice-President Wallace's program... but he cannot misrepresent him. The man in this newspaper by placing in his mouth words which he does not utter, or by charging him with belief he does not hold, and then fall back on the freedom of speech... it is not on account of Westbrook Pegler's argument but because of his misrepresentation that we have ceased to carry his articles. When he charged Vice-President Wallace with being by intent a poisoner of American minds, he not only lost our confidence, he also lost a customer."

The Pegler technique of smearing the whole labor movement by playing up and exaggerating the misdoings of a few irresponsible or over-paid labor leaders is of the same irresponsible cloth from which Fritz Kuhn cut his pro-Nazi propaganda and Charles Coughlin fashioned his religious antagonisms.

BRASS MEDAL OF THE MONTH IS AWARDED to our own dear State Department for the establishing of the Peyton-Stout-Gird axis in North Africa. Thousands of citizens, hitherto personally loyal to Secretary Hull, will resent his permitting the foisting of such political smut.

ANGLOPHOBES WHO INSIST that the British will fail to give India her promised freedom after the war can well look to the Irish Free State, which was not achieved its freedom but is being protected in that freedom by Britain. It may be accepted as an elementary fact that but for the British fleet Ireland would today be a German base of operations.

It is true that Great Britain failed to live up to all her promises in respect to India after the last war. But it is also true that Indian independence has been slowed up by India itself. The British are closer to accepting any reasonable workable plan for Indian freedom than are the various Indian sects, races and political parties.

In any case, it is hardly to be expected that Britain will grant freedom of action to Indian leaders, Gandhi, Nehru, et al, who have declared their intent to oppose Japanese aggression with only the weapon of "non-resistance and non-cooperation." To grant freedom with such a frame of mind in ascendancy would contribute directly to the might and conquest of the enemy.

QUOTATION MARKS: "This beast Hitler is prowling in the cage that is beaten Europe, and he threatens to drown whole nations who are hostages in his hands, in rivers of blood. Hitler should remember, however, that he is provoking revenge such as has never been known to history. The whole German nation, in silence or enthusiasm, stands like a wall round Hitler and supports all his bloody crimes. The Germans should remember that we shall get into their homes, into Germany's interior, and that punishment will be pitiless if they do not cease their bloody persecution. There is a justice in the course of history and of nations—and the greater their crimes the harder will the hand of Providence strike those bandits!"

—General Sikorski, Polish Prime Minister and Commander-in-Chief.

Newton Graphic, February 3, 1888
Howard Brothers have recently completed filling their ice houses with unusually fine clear ice, which averages about 14 inches in thickness. 4000 tons have been put in Co's ponds and 8000 tons at Pearl Lake. A force of 125 men were employed 8 days in doing the work.

If the weather of the past two weeks continues, all the plumbers of Newton will be able to take a European trip next summer. On Sunday there was scarcely a house in which the water pipes were not frozen, and this may have explained the small attendance at the city churches on Sunday evening.

The children of the Barnard School, West Newton, were dismissed, it being impossible to raise the temperature of the building sufficiently high to make it safe for them to remain.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, February 3, 1893
The boys have a fine time coasting down the Bemis Hill, Bridge st., Nonantum.

Several of the wool sorters from the Nonantum Wool Co. recently went fishing for eels; one of their number found a thin place and went down through the ice but it is not said whether he found any eels. The eels are placed on the roof of the building, where, before reaching home he was as slippery as one.

It seems probable that the first crematory in this state will be located in the Newton cemetery. The trustees have decided favorably and are willing to sell the land for a site for the building which, it is understood, will be architecturally an attractive structure.

How about the inside man at police headquarters? There are several candidates for the place and Officer Purcell is among those favorably mentioned.

The Water department have begun moving into their new barn on Watertown st., but will not take formal possession until the new steam heater is put in.

Owing to Mr. Oliver B. Billings' increased business he has decided to add a hay and grain department to his grocery store.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, February 1, 1918
Mr. Oliver M. Fisher, Fuel Administrator of Newton, emphasized the fact that fuel must be conserved as never before, and while he did not want the people to be alarmed he warned them that if coal does not come to Boston faster in the next two weeks than it has in the past fortnight the situation would be most serious and that if it does not those who have a quantity of coal in their cellars would have to share it with others.

West Newton has started a big drive for funds with which to carry on the war work which the women of that community are now so energetically performing. The women have already fitted out the destroyer "Javis" and they have only this week completed the fitting out of the destroyer "Kimberly." This is merely an incident during the past few months the "Knitting Committee," have completed 3,884 knitted woolen articles, besides 417 Christmas Cheer Bags. The "Soldiers' Aid" has made 126,880 articles during the same period, of which 120,704 are surgical dressings.

Letters To The Editor

January 28, 1943.

Mr. Ted Friend,
Care The Column "This Week, This World."
The Newton Graphic
11 Centre Avenue,
Newton, Massachusetts.

My dear Mr. Friend:
Just a brief line to express appreciation of your remarks on Westbrook Pegler and his labor-baiting in the issue of the GRAPHIC for Thursday, January 21st. Lord knows, there is plenty of racketeering in labor, but there is equally as much and perhaps much more costly to the country among big business men. Furthermore, as you point out, there are numbers of decent and honest men in both groups. Your column is a good one. Keep it up!

Cordially yours,
WILLIAM H. BURTON,
Director of Apprenticeship.

Dear Editor:

It has long been on my mind to write and thank you for your courtesy and consideration in giving valuable space and good placement to the frequent news items I have sent into the GRAPHIC. You may be sure that your kind attention has been appreciated and the delay in acknowledging it has been due only to lack of time and pressure of work, not to any lack of thought and gratitude.

Too often we value something without giving voice to how much it really means, but through the many years of the GRAPHIC has come to be one of Newton's valued institutions and is so regarded by a great many in the community. I hope that it still has many years ahead to serve the people of Newton.

Sincerely yours,
MABEL B. WORTH
(Mrs. Wm. C.)

Point Rationing Goes Into Effect Monday, March 1

Over 200 Canned Foods Sales Stop Feb. 20 to Allow for Listing

Point rationing will definitely move into the American home March 1st, according to a release made public Tuesday by the Washington office of OPA, when canned fruits and vegetables, as well as frozen fruits and vegetables, dried fruits, canned soups and canned baby foods will become effective.

The news release stated that sales of these foods will stop on Feb. 20th to allow retailers to stock up on these commodities before rationing takes place.

The general listing of all citizens for Ration Book No. 2, containing point rationing coupons, will start throughout the nation on Feb. 22nd. The eight-day period before March 1st will be devoted to this listing as well as to enable grocers to instruct clerks and mark canned goods with their point value. These point values will be announced to the public by OPA as well at this time. When making application for Ration Book No. 2, every household must declare the number of cans of food on hand, cans of eight ounces or more, over and above five cans for each member of the household. They must also declare the amount of coffee they had on hand Nov. 28th, when coffee rationing went into effect. These limitations are placed on canned foods in order to prevent hoarding of these commodities by the public before the point rationing system goes into operation on March 1st.

Draft Delinquents Have Until Feb. 14

To afford draft delinquents more time to comply with the provisions of the Selective Service law, the proposed drive slated to start Monday under the auspices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was postponed to Feb. 14, according to Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas P. O'Connor, who is in charge of draft law evasion prosecutions.

Recently, the State Selective Service headquarters reported that more than 1000 men in Massachusetts had failed to meet the requirements of the law, but pointed out that only a small percentage were willful violators. Many changed addresses, others enlisted in the armed forces, and no notice was given to local boards by registrants. Thus, many have been carried as delinquents. Since the announcement that the FBI would take action against those who failed to report, scores have appeared at the various boards and have had their status adjusted.

New "C" Stickers On Rear Windows

Motorists who insist on sticking the new long-tailed "C" gasoline rationing sticker on their rear windows as ordered by Registrar Frank A. Goodwin, will face prosecution and a possible maximum $20 fine for obstructing the driver's view.

The registrar protested that if car owners continued to stick all the labels on their windshields, they would have to get a periscope pushing out of the roof to see where they are going. Rationing officials pointed out that persons with both "A" and "C" stickers are required to paste on only the higher ration sticker, eliminating the need of pasting up the "A" sticker.

POLITICS WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

An Apology

I am sorry if any of my readers read into my column of Jan. 7 an implied criticism of General Blackford, the dynamic and fearless radio commentator from Medford. It is a real pleasure to learn from Mr. Edward A. Tucker's letter to the GRAPHIC that Mr. Blackford, immediately after his defeat for Mayor of Medford, enlisted in the Coast Guard and is now on duty somewhere in the Atlantic. This must be bad news for Adolf, the demented paperhanger. Personally, I have great respect for Mr. Blackford, a man of unquestioned courage and integrity. Let us hope that he will return home safe and take up once more his various civic tasks.

The Flynn Flasco

At long last, Ross Edward J. Flynn of New York saw the light and persuaded the President to withdraw his name from consideration as Minister to Austria. To say that this action only after a most thorough canvass of the U. S. Senate convinced him that his nomination would fail to be confirmed. Hats off to Senator McKellar of Tennessee who really pulled the beans. Until this Senator announced his stand, Flynn's chances appeared to be about fifty-fifty. It is a pity that President Roosevelt made such a miserable nomination in the first instance. Australia is entitled to a Minister of impeccable character and reputation. A man like Joseph Grew, former Ambassador to Japan, would be a splendid choice.

Women Jurors

I do wish that our state legislature would get in step with the times and accord women the right to serve as jurors. For twenty years the fair sex has battled for this privilege, which many other states have long since granted to their women. Surely the women of Massachusetts are just as capable of performing a juror's duties as the women of any other state. Incidentally, it sounds so ridiculous to have some long-winded legislator get up each year and stress the "indignities of the jury room."

These so-called indignities consist of the removal of men's neckties and, once in a while, their shirts. Finally, according to Rep. Charles J. Skladzien of Webster, the current defender of the nobility and sanctity of women, it is stated that some men even go to such lengths as to remove their shoes and socks in order to rest their weary feet. Isn't that just ghastly? Of course, it occurs to the writer that any staunch defender of the fair sex could exert his influence in the direction of persuading his suffering colleagues to remain fully dressed just as they normally would in polite society. It is not so long ago that I had the privilege of serving as foreman of the Federal Grand Jury and I cannot recall that it distressed me to keep on all my clothes. However, in case the kindly male of the species should find it quite impossible to act like a gentleman, it is a safe guess that the women of Massachusetts will survive the ordeal. I know that my good friend, Rep. Leslie B. Cutler of Needham would take it in stride.

The true of Margaret L. Spear of Newton Centre. And so, gentlemen of the legislature, let's hear some valid arguments against this proposition; otherwise, put the bill through pronto, just as tho' it was a salary increase, and get on with the day's work.

The Governor's Job

I am very much distressed over the recent clash between our Governor and our outspoken Attorney General, Robert T. Bushnell, in connection with the appointment of David B. Keniston as Chief Justice of the Municipal Court in Boston. My readers must have been startled by the Bushnell blast. One gathered that our distinguished Governor was about to give aid and comfort to a horde of wicked criminals. Surely Leverett Saltonstall would never make such a grievous error as that. On the other hand, what possible excuse was there for Bushnell's bitter denunciation? He knows, of course, that it is the Governor's duty to make appointments and the Council's duty to scrutinize them and select any improper or unduly weak appointment. When the Governor's Council confirmed Mr. Keniston by a unanimous vote, the average citizen doubtless figured that it was the Attorney General and not the Governor who had made the mistake. Furthermore, there are nine men on the Council, including the Lieutenant Governor, and it is hard to believe that they were all wrong.

The Boston Herald, in commenting on this matter recently, pointed out that a relatively small fraction of the Chief Justice's time is devoted to serious criminal business. Much of the business of this court is civil and a substantial slice of the criminal business, so-called, is covered by petty auto violations, drunkenness, etc. So, what is all the shouting about?

Before leaving this topic, there is one more comment which may be pertinent. If, as many of the Attorney General's friends suspect, he hopes to advance up the political ladder, would it not be wise for him to behave in a less impetuous manner, especially when he is tempted to cross swords with our very popular and highly respected Governor? I say this in all kindness, for I yield to no one in my genuine admiration for the Attorney General's ability, character and courage. I am hoping that he is not going to jockey himself into the position of Tom Dewey, now Governor of New York, who found himself in an unpleasant political pocket not so many years ago. When he was in Washington—The Seventy-eighth Congress, although only a little more than a month old, is proving to be decidedly investigation-minded. Currently the five problems which are being the most thoroughly investigated by several committees are rubber, manpower, rationing, lend-lease and profits arising from war contracts. What old Congressmen can't understand is the determination on the part of some committees to go ahead with their own investigations regardless of whether other Committees are delving into the same subject. This procedure, which is proving cumbersome and embarrassing, may necessitate new reforms of legislative procedure.

Pierre Laval celebrated the tenth anniversary of the Nazi accession in Germany by forming his own Elite Guard. Like their Nazi brethren, the Guards wear dark shirts with black arm-bands and are sworn to protect alone the French "quiescent" attempted to enlist a hundred thousand men in his personal army, but soon found out that most Frenchmen balked at his policy of complete "collaboration" with Germany. According to a reliable informant, the guard does not number more than a few thousand members. Laval may need them all in the near future if he is to save his own skin a little while longer.

It is now clear that Hitler's answer to Casablanca's decision of "unconditional surrender" is his retort that if Germany is beaten Europe will fall into chaos and Bolshevism. Close students of Nazi tactics believe that Hitler is even exaggerating the military setbacks of the German armies to impress upon the world the Nazis thesis of the danger of Bolshevism. The German people, however, have been so saturated with propaganda of that sort during the past ten years that they no longer are stirred or depressed by it.

What Hitler fears most is the large group of Germans who never accepted his ideology, but could not protest because to do so would have meant the concentration camp. He knows that the suppressed hate and disgust of these millions of Germans will come to the surface at the very first opportunity. And that this opportunity may come before the Fuehrer can celebrate the next anniversary of his rise to power.

This message of a Wall st. "sage" regarding the fear of inflation may be worth repeating. Says he: "Bear in mind that the purchasing value of your dollars in the post-war world will depend far more upon the production achieved by industry than upon the size of the Government debt. With greatly increased producing resources and technical knowledge, the long-run outlook is for a largely increased annual supply of lower-cost, higher-quality goods. Therefore, the long-run forecast has to be that dollars will purchase more, rather than less, than you can buy with them now. If that is so, any moderate intervening shrinkage in exchange value will be at both limited and higher-quality goods. The consumers who are hanging on to their dollars and passing up 1941 or early 1942-model radio sets have the right idea."

WALTER PIERCE PREDICTS: A public conference scheduled for February 22, by a group of liberals will announce plans to campaign for President Roosevelt or his choice for a successor in 1944. The conference will have the backing of some of the nation's highest elected officials as well as the A. F. of L., the Railway Brotherhood, the American Labor Party and large groups of independent farmers. ... Compromise on pay-as-you-go tax plan may take this form: Assessments of 1942 taxes, as usual on March 15, with privilege of paying such taxes over a period of time or a discount if paid this year along with 1943 taxes. ... Because of gossip that England is laying careful plans for world trade after the war, administration officials probably will consider trade act extended this year.

Ice Cream Placed On Monthly Basis

The Food Distribution Administration Monday put on a monthly basis its recent order limiting the use of milk in ice cream and frozen dairy products.

In February and ensuing months processors must limit the use of milk solids in frozen dairy products to 65 per cent of the quantities used for civilian consumption in the corresponding month during the base period, Dec. 1, 1941, to Nov. 30, 1942.

Monthly allocation periods are being used, the FDA said, to assure a more even distribution of ice cream to the civilian population and to simplify compliance and reports by processors. Deliveries for the armed forces are exempt.

substantially the same situation as our own Mr. Bushnell, he was plagued by the frequent comment: "Dewey is a remarkable prosecutor—PERIOD." In other words, Dewey's fame as a public prosecutor was secure, but there was grave question as to whether or not he was qualified to go higher. Do you see my point?

New Air Raid Signals at a Glance

The following summary of the new air raid warning signal system and blackout procedure which will go into effect at 12:01 A.M. February 17, 1943, in the Eastern Military Area, is designed to tell at a glance what to do and when. Clip this out. Place it in a conspicuous place in your home, your business house, or behind the sun visor of your automobile.

WHEN YOU HEAR A LONG, STEADY BLAST ON AN AIR RAID SIREN, HORN OR WHISTLE—THIS IS THE BLUE SIGNAL—THIS MEANS ENEMY PLANES PROBABLY COMING YOUR WAY.

Blackout the lights in your home and business house. Either draw your blackout curtains or turn the lights off.

If you're in your automobile on the street or road—switch your lights to the low beam—proceed wherever you were going—proceed with caution—start thinking about getting to a safe place.

If you're walking—continue to walk—start thinking about where you will go if a raid signal follows.

WHEN YOU HEAR A SERIES OF SHORT BLASTS ON THE AIR RAID HORN OR WHISTLE OR A RISING AND FALLING SOUND ON THE AIR RAID SIREN—THIS IS THE RED SIGNAL—THIS MEANS ENEMY PLANES ARE OVERHEAD.

Keep your lights blacked out.

If you're in your automobile—pull over to the side—stop—turn your lights out—get out—go to the nearest air raid shelter.

If you're walking—go to the nearest air raid shelter—get off the street.

If you're on a street car or bus—get out—go to the nearest air raid shelter.

REMEMBER—AFTER THE RED SIGNAL, THERE WILL BE A BLUE SIGNAL. THIS DOES NOT MEAN "ALL CLEAR." THIS MEANS ENEMY PLANES NO LONGER OVERHEAD. KEEP ON ALERT. ENEMY PLANES MAY RETURN.

YOU MUST: Keep your lights blacked out.

If you were in your automobile prior to the Red Signal, you may get back into it, turn the lights on the low beam and proceed wherever you were going. Proceed with caution.

If you were walking prior to the red signal, you may resume walking.

If you were in a street car or bus, you may get back into it and proceed.

REMEMBER: A BLUE SIGNAL MAY NOT ALWAYS PRECEDE A RED SIGNAL. There may not be time enough. But a BLUE SIGNAL ALWAYS FOLLOWS A RED SIGNAL.

REMEMBER: Whenever you leave your home or business house, the LIGHTS MUST BE BLACKED OUT or attended.

REMEMBER: Unless your community has prescribed a signal for "ALL CLEAR" that is different from either the BLUE or the RED signals, the ONLY THING THAT MEANS "ALL CLEAR" is the switching on of street lights that were out during the BLUE (blackout), or an announcement transmitted by radio, telephone, or police, or other means.

Kiwanis Activities

The regular Tuesday meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club was held at the Newton Y. M. C. A., the new meeting place for the Club.

Secretary "Bill" Payne reported that at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors, held February 1st, there was voted an appropriation to the Greater Boston United War Fund. An appropriation to the Brighton Club was also voted, which will assist them in obtaining a therapeutic machine for their underprivileged child fund committee. George Van Buskirk reported $40 in Victory Club collections, plus two bonds sold.

"Ed" Durocher was formally welcomed into the Club by "Wally" Finlay, chairman of the Education Committee, who presented him with his pin and badge.

The speaker was Dr. Gabriel Farrell, Director of the Perkins Institution for the Blind of Watertown, who spoke on "Education of the Blind." He discussed the training given which begins in the Kindergarten and extends through Senior High School.

This latter school is divided into five departments—College Preparatory, Literary, Musical, Commercial and Industrial, and specialized training is given the pupils, enabling them to master the particular field they choose.

He concluded by explaining that placement of graduates in fields of Industry and Commerce has been greatly accelerated due to the War but that the biggest handicap to placement of these pupils is not their ability to do the work, but the lack of confidence in their ability which keeps some employers from hiring them.

Promoted To Rank of Major

Wearing the gold oak leaves of a major for the first time in his career, Milton Weeks, Public Relations Officer and Signal Officer of George Field, Illinois.

As Captain, he had been Base Signal Officer of the Post since August, 1942, when he was promoted to the rank of major.

In late November of the same year, he assumed the additional duties of Public Relations Officer, and directed the expansion of the department that witnessed the growth of "The Flyer" from a small, mimeographed sheet to a modern newspaper with a circulation of more than 4,000 copies.

Prior to his enlistment in the armed forces in April, 1942, Major Weeks had been President and owner of the Heath Tire Service, Inc. Before the organization of this concern, however, he enjoyed wide experience as an engineer in the service of both Western Union and International Telephone and Telegraph Company, during which service his work carried him throughout the United States, as well as to Canada and Mexico. His chief contribution, perhaps, has been the discovery of a special method of gas leak detection that has already resulted in saving billions of cubic feet of illuminating gas and preventing widespread injury to man and plants.

Major Weeks is an alumnus of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor where he was a varsity member of both track and football teams. He holds membership in the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and Masonic Lodge. His wife Elizabeth, and their two children, Milton Weeks, Jr., and Barbara Janice, presently reside at the family home, 1835 Beacon st., Waban, Mass.

Ask Children To Use Busses As Little As Possible

Due to the fact that the Newton School Department has received a number of complaints about the overcrowding of busses in which the pupils ride to the High School and Warren and Weeks Junior High Schools, the school committee has issued an appeal to parents asking them to keep their children from riding unless they reside in a long distance from the schools.

On stormy days the situation has been quite bad, and Supt. Julius E. Warren states that the street railway company has been gravely concerned about it.

Stock of Records Unusually Large

The Beecher Hobbs Phonograph Record Shop in Brookline was opened by and for people to whom music means a great deal, and its general tone and atmosphere derive from this basic fact. The war has, of course, created many difficult problems for phonograph record manufacturers, distributors and dealers, as it has for practically every other business. But the war, also, has made music and records more than ever necessary. The problems are even more difficult of solution in England than in America—but record sales there are currently about 60 per cent above normal. The place of music in these times, not merely for enjoyment but as an aid to mental health and sanity surely needs no emphasis.

The Beecher Hobbs shop is modern, spacious, cheerfully and attractively decorated. Indeed, many have said that it is the most beautiful record shop they have ever been in. The record booths are larger than those usually found in the downtown stores. They are comfortable, sound-proofed, well-ventilated, and equipped with high-fidelity, simply-operated machines. The popular records are listened to (by the youngsters) through earphones; so the shop is quiet and you do not hear boogie-woogie with your teeth. The personnel has been chosen with unusual care. It is the belief of the management, based on experience, that it is very rare to find in a record shop such helpful and competent young women as these here.

The stock of records in this store is unusually large. It is true that under present conditions there are, from time to time, excellent and important standard recordings which are not available. The prevention of these shortages and delays is naturally quite out of the hands of the individual dealer, but many thousands of records are on the shelves with other thousands in the basement so almost any reasonable request can be filled. This stock includes not only Victor, Columbia, Bluebird, and other records, but also the new Capitol records from Hollywood, and other makes.

The location of the store, on Beacon st., between Washington square and Cleveland Circle (one block from Forest Hills), is very convenient for Newton people, as a constantly increasing number are finding out. It is, moreover, owned and operated by a Newton resident of many years' standing. Mr. Hobbs' father, in fact, was the principal of the Mason School in Newton Centre, when the present

An Appreciation

In announcing the success of the United War Fund Campaign, Chairman Neil Leonard said:

"I want to express to the citizens of Newton my sincere appreciation for the splendid gifts to the United War Fund. They have again met the challenge and again placed Newton in her rightful place as a generous community."

"I want also to thank all of the 2000 workers who helped us attain our goal. They have done a magnificent job, from division leaders to door-to-door callers and have fought from the beginning for this victory, in spite of adverse conditions and much discouragement."

"Our figures include some estimates, but these will shortly be made up by pledges that have been promised and are expected."

EXCEED COMMUNITY FUND QUOTA

Good Salvage Results Here In 1942

Summary Shows Newton Did Well Although 30 Percent of Householders Fail to Cooperate in Tin Salvage

By ROBERT V. SPENCER

Seventy per cent of Newton homes co-operated in the tin salvage drive during the year 1942. The housewives salvaged and put on the street for city collection 63 tons of tin cans. This amount was just under the estimated city quota set last spring. These 63 tons of tin salvage, Newton's contribution for the relief of tin shortage of the nation was carted into the Kneeland st. siding by city trucks and are already processed at Pittsburg by the detinning plant there.

John Haughey, Newton's busy Street Commissioner and salvage chairman, took time out last week to give the writer a brief summary of the city's accomplishments in the different salvage drives during the past year and to give a bit of a forecast for 1943. "Since the amount of tin available for home salvage during the coming year will be far less than that of last year, due to rationing and can shortage, it should still be possible for the city to contribute as much or more tin salvage during 1943 than last year, if the 30 per cent of homes not yet co-operating will join in and do their full share," declared Commissioner Haughey.

The change from weekly to monthly collections, now in effect, will result in a considerable saving to the city in the cost of collection. The saving in truck mileage and time of the collectors are evident. There will also be a saving in distance hauled to the railway siding, as under the new schedule a car will be available at the Watertown yard. It is expected that the salvage from Newton, Watertown and Belmont will complete a car load each month. During the last four months of 1942, Massachusetts shipped 2,278 gross tons of tin salvage to the Vulcan Detinning Company at Pittsburg, according to the office of the State Salvage Committee.

Metal Scrap
During the special metal and rubber drive, the city of Newton collected 1,250 tons of metals and rubber. This was in addition to the 56,000 pounds of rubber collected by Newton tire dealers in an earlier drive. The returns from the city metal and rubber scrap brought approximately $4,000 which was turned over to the Newton Committee for Service to Service Men and has been used largely for presentation of traveling kits upon induction to units leaving the city for Army and Navy training centers. The proceeds from the earlier rubber drive were turned over to the USO by the Dealers' Committee. The State Salvage Committee has moved 175,000 tons of metal scrap during the past year.

In appraising Newton's full contribution to the metal scrap drive, it should be taken into consideration that a large amount of iron scrap was made ready and sold direct to Boston jobbers by auto yards. These dealers were busy long before the organized drive of the city got underway, and, in spite of labor shortages and price ceilings, they tore down old cars and collected heavy scrap which during the year added several hundred tons of metal to the above figures.

Commissioner Haughey says that there will surely be another metal and rubber scrap drive during the year, and suggests that all Newton householders accumulate and hold their rubber and metal scrap until a collection date is arranged. According to estimates, the coming drive will need to be made even more searching than that of the past year.

Fats
During the last quarter of 1942, Massachusetts turned over to rendering plants 863,000 pounds of fats. This gave the state the highest position of all states in the Union in percentage of quotas reached in fats salvage.

The writer has made no attempt to make any special study at this time of Newton's contribution in this category, for to secure figures which would represent anything more than mere guesswork, it would be necessary to make a canvass of all food dealers in the city. However, going back to the study we made last summer, and published in the GRAPHIC, it is safe to assume that Newton householders are giving a performance fully up to, or better, than the average.

Paper
During the early part of the year, when the demand for scrap paper existed, the Street Department salvaged, baled and sold 230 tons of paper which netted the city treasury $2,860. Due to a paradox which the layman cannot understand, scrap paper soon became a drug on the market. In spite of ominous warnings to users of newspaper, there is still no demand for waste papers, except a moderate one for craft paper (brown wrapping paper) which has only recently arisen.

Silk and Nylon
Since the call for old silk and nylon stockings for reprocessing for cannon powder bags, the state of Massachusetts has shipped to the Area Defense Committee in New York 11,638 pounds of stockings. This is 76 per cent of all stockings shipped from New England. Here again, the writer has made no attempt to appraise Newton's effort because of the difficulties involved. However, all should know that all Newton dry goods retail establishments are giving their wholehearted co-operation. They all have receptacles for receiving the old silk and nylon turned in. Periodically, two or more dealers group together in making up a 100-pound bale.

Educational Campaign Needed

It is the firm conviction of this writer that a thorough campaign of education is still needed to make Newton's salvage effort a 100 per cent success. Nothing but a house-to-house canvass by thoroughly trained workers will be able to accomplish the task effectively. Good Americans all stand ready to do their full share and have from the start of the war, but pleasure driving when people are shivering, and failure to convert to coal, when grates and coal were available, show that people need to be more than patriotic in a general way. In order to cut the loss of life and human suffering to a minimum in winning this war, we still need more universal intelligence with our patriotism.

Inspections To Be Made By Public Safety Committee

Commencing February 17 arrangements are being made by the Newton Committee on Public Safety to provide inspection facilities as to air raid precautions of stores, offices, clubs, restaurants, bowling alleys, theatres, schools, churches, etc. Inspections will only be made with the permission of the occupant.

This inspection is similar to those made last year of homes and manufacturing plants, the results of which have demonstrated that, in general, Newton manufacturing plants and homes are prepared for air raids.

The program now announced is the third step in the efforts of the Committee on Public Safety to assist the public in preparing the necessary protection against possible enemy action.

Adequate plans for defense and equipment to meet emergency conditions of an air raid are characterized as being both good business and good common sense and, although the A.R.P. warden numbers several thousands, the fundamentals for protection of Newton depend on the Newton householders, business men and institution.

The inspection will be by qualified A.R.P. warden who will call at business places and places where the public gather and ask permission to inspect the facilities which, if found adequate, will result in the award of a Civilian Defense window sticker.

The inspection will cover equipment, such as hose or pumps, sand, shovels, flashlights, heavy gloves, fire extinguishers, first aid kits and special precautions that have been taken for the control of unusual hazards. Attention will be paid to dim-out and black-out preparations and to the general knowledge as to the use of equipment provided and with thought as to possible evacuation, the locations of nearby public air raid shelters.

The warden are prepared to give suggestions and advice regarding these matters so that every institution in Newton will be as adequately prepared as possible, as part of a continuing program.

Chief John L. Keating of the Newton Fire Department and Rupert C. Thompson of the Chamber of Commerce have signified their approval and co-operation in this plan for public safety.

Advanced First Aid Course Is Completed

Two advanced First Aid courses have been given to members of the Newton Red Cross Motor Corps in the last two months under the direction of Miss Grace Cummings of the Motor Corps who was assisted by Mrs. Edward Cohen. Special emphasis was put on transportation problems and actual practice work under severe handicaps. Members of the Motor Corps who have just finished these courses are: Mrs. Warren Ames, Mrs. Rose Badger, Mrs. Philip Brown, Mrs. Earl Davis, Mrs. Edwin Dresser, Mrs. James Farrell, Mrs. Ethel Harvinton, Mrs. Gilbert Harrison, Mrs. Earl Irons, Mrs. Francis King, Mrs. Stuart Kasters, Mrs. D. Morley Lodge, Mrs. Joseph Marksville, Mrs. Stanley Steadfast, Miss Olive Webster, Mrs. Frederick Woodruff and Mrs. F. W. Atherton.

Wants Business Zone Extended

A petition has been filed at Newton City Hall for the extension of the business district at Beacon and Walnut sts., Ward 5, from 1114 Beacon st., to and including 112 Beacon st., to a depth of 100 ft. on the southerly side of the street.

Merrill C. Nutting, real estate dealer, as trustee for the owners of the property, filed the petition.

The land in question is now zoned in a private residence district. It has not been disclosed what type of business is planned but it is expected that it will be explained at the hearing to be held on the petition by the Claims and Rules Committee. A hearing held on the matter will also be held at the same time by the Planning Board.

I. H. Whalen On Reserve Force

The announcement was made by Neil Leonard, Newton Campaign Chairman, at the "Open House of Closing Night" held at the headquarters of the Newton Community Chest at 93 Union st., Newton Centre, Tuesday evening.

The prospective subscribers of pledges amounting to the $3,300 it was explained could not be reached in time to secure their signed pledges, among these, one is in Arizona, another, in Florida and a third in the hospital, according to Newton Campaign officials, who emphasized that these verbal commitments would materialize as soon as circumstances permitted.

Newton Division heads reported the following totals: Advanced Gifts; Durham Jones, Chairman, $147,226; Residential, Thomas B. Shirley, Chairman, $112,687; Industrial, Vincent C. ## Levi F. Warren Junior High School Awarded "Minute Man" Flag

During the month of January three more Newton schools have qualified to fly the Treasury "Minute Man" flag below the United States flag from their flag poles. In order to qualify they had to have 90% or more of their students buying war savings stamps or bonds in a calendar month, and they may fly their flags as long as they maintain their percentage each month.

The presentation of the Treasury "Minute Man" flag at the Levi F. Warren Junior High School was made by Lt. Commander Henry B. Shepard, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, chairman of the Women's Division of the Newton War Savings Committee and David Holden, School Community President presiding over the assembly. Their flag was given the school by The West Newton Men's Club and the percentage was 97.10.

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

The Newton Highlands Woman's Club will have its next regular meeting Tuesday, Feb. 16th, at 2:00 p. m. Dr. David Lewis will speak on "Health in a Changing World." He approaches his discussion of a vital topic from the viewpoint of practical experience. Dr. Lewis has, for many years, been a teacher of biology, and psychology, a research scientist in the field of food chemistry, and is now actively engaged in the practice of medicine. Mrs. Walter I. Percy and Mrs. Raymond R. Wisner will display an interesting collection of Old Shawls in the art corner.

Waban Woman's Club

The speaker for the meeting of the Waban Woman's Club to be held February 15th, at 1:30 o'clock at the Neighborhood Club will be Rev. Vivian T. Pomeroy, minister of the First Parish in Milton. Mrs. C. W. Woodbridge will be hostess for the afternoon assisted by Mrs. Joseph F. Mullineaux and Mr. John M. Powell.

Mrs. H. R. Emmons, Jr., of the art committee has arranged an exhibition of paintings by Ruth Stead Fuller, formerly of Waban.

Recent Events

Auburndale Woman's Club

The Music Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club and invited guests spent a very enjoyable afternoon on Monday, February 8, at the home of Mrs. William A. Jarvis on Oakwood rd.

Mrs. McDermott conducted the business meeting after which Mrs. Neal Herrick read a paper on the works of George Bernard Shaw. The songs were sung and played from the different operas they wrote.

A very pleasant social hour followed and Mrs. Jarvis was assisted by Mr. Lewis at the tea table in the serving of refreshments.

A most enjoyable afternoon was given to the members of the Auburndale Woman's Club through the courtesy of the Newton Trust Company when Mr. Dirk van der Stucken spoke on the "Happenings in the World of Today." He was introduced by Mrs. Hutchinson of the Women's Committee of the Newton Trust Company. The stage was attractive in "V" for Victory decorations, and tea was served in the Lounge where the table decorations were also in red, white and blue.

Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Billings served at the coffee urns, officers of the Newton Trust Company were guests of the Club.

Demand for Recreational Equipment Tops Supply; Citizens' Committee Asks for Help

The Citizens' Committee for the Army and Navy, Inc., an affiliate of the U. S. O., asks that you examine your Music Room, Bookcases and Storage Closets for any of the following: Athletic equipment, outdoor and indoor; Books, Magazines; Dictionaries and grammars in foreign languages; Games, chess, checkers, darts, ping pong, etc.; Playing cards, used and new; Musical instruments, String, Brass, Drums, etc.; Furniture for Recreation Rooms (good condition only); Phonographs (table models in demand); Phonograph Records (even broken records have a turn-in value); Pool tables and equipment; Radios (especially portable ones).

Since 1941, before and during its affiliation with the U.S.O., the Citizens' Committee for the Army and Navy, Inc., has, with the advice of the Services, played a large role in maintaining morale and in furnishing the means of relaxation to many thousands of men in uniform. This committee has not only been able to furnish Camp Shows, Musical Libraries, and fit out over 500 day rooms, but through its contacts and familiarity with the needs of our Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marines, and Air Forces, has been able to cooperate and aid other organizations engaged in similar worthwhile pursuits.

The job has been tremendous, and will be more so in the future, for goals are high in these times, and to get the necessary articles and equipment needed so badly, the Committee will have to supplement the funds it receives from the U.S.O. and Greater Boston United War Fund by material aid from the citizens of the area. Demands will increase, financial resources will not, and with the knowledge that Americans never fail to support a worthwhile project, the Committee, without hesitation, appeals to you for assistance. Any articles of the type mentioned in the above list will be gratefully received at Newton Headquarters, Corner Summer street and Langley road, Newton Centre, BIG 0299.

Farm Workers Program

By LILLIAN ZARAKOV

There will have to be applied to the recruiting and training program of the "new" Farm Workers the type of intelligent understanding which was implemented with such a marked degree of success by Industry in the training of inexperienced operators, the breakdown into the simplest operations of the intricate machinery to the new workers' scope; the set-up of health precautions against occupational hazards; and the endeavors to build up "The feeling" amongst workers of doing "Something Worthwhile" for their country.

To cite two examples of last summer, briefly:
A group of 14-16 year old boys were brought into a Farm Yard to start "Day Work" which had previously been discussed with the Farmer. The Farmer looked them over with seeming disdain but actually only with dismayed disappointment. Extending no greeting of any sort he simply said "Get to work on the Hay right smart."

As Youth does to cover their own inexperience and confusion, they broke into song. Finally when the boys wanted to know "Where is the tractor?" and other experienced machinery, the further disturbed Farmer exclaimed "Well, guess I'll go to the Shipyard myself before I put-up with such a bunch of green hands. I can get $50-$75 a week and no troubles. And put-by enough to get tractors, electricity and a lot of other stuff."

These same boys were then taken to what is known in the Community as "The Model Farm." What a difference!!

This Farmer greeted the group as "Oldtime Buddies." "Well, fellows, what do you think you can do around a Farm? How much pay do you want?" Why did you come here, anyhow?

The boys perked right up: "I did not volunteer to be paid, because I want to get in condition for the Air Corps."

"The old Football muscles have to be hardened up."

"I earned big money indoors in the City, but I'll be 17 soon and I must get ready for the Navy."

"I'll take what you give me. I need the dough but want to do something outdoors this summer. Whatever goes is O. K. with me."

"We have the tractor! How much it is the only way we can do something worthwhile."

Whereupon, the Farmer called his help "Roger." "Show these fellows around and tell them what it's all about."

Roger did, too. The boys reported: "Ole Roger took the whole afternoon to explain everything to us. Boy, do you have to be careful with those tools and machinery. Never knew they cost so much to let us drive 'em. Ted means we have to be careful."

"Roger certainly knows his stuff, all right. Tomorrow we start work."

"Tomorrow, Roger will give us a talk first. We have to get there early. Roger says the 8 of us are equal to one tractor. We bet him we could cut that in a week and again next week. Guess we better watch our step. Is he strong. Boy, what muscles!"

Never before have Farmers had to give any consideration to "setting-up" provisions for these "teen-age" workers.

"Tommy doesn't know how to work. I can't wait until school is over to get him on a farm to learn the 'whys and wherefores' of work."

"Jane won't raise a finger around the house. I'll send her to a farm to be a mother's helper. That will teach her!"

"Ann looks poorly. Good fresh air and food on a farm—early to bed, and early to rise."

"The Doctor says, 'Ted needs an outside job.' I'll place him on a farm and he can earn some money at the same time."

True to form as are these hopes to the usual parental pattern of thinking, it must be remembered that the parents of the Farm Workers are inexperienced children on the farm families already beset with their own difficulties or to expect training for their children in which they themselves had failed.

Conditions on many farms are not set-up for all ages and temperaments of boys and girls coming from different home environments. These adolescent children cannot be thrown onto the farms without the guidance of people experienced in "Youth's Ways."

Now, when there is such a dearth of medical aid in rural areas, health precautions must be provided in advance. It is cheaper in time, money, man-power to do so carefully.

1. The Red Cross First Aid Card is a "must." Any and all "Exposures" explained in the Red Cross First Aid Manual are present in the out-of-doors.

2. It is axiomatic that the workers get the Tetanus Toxoid. Farm hands work in and around manure, rusty metal and machinery.

3. The Necessity of Typhoid Serum is certainly evident. The insecurity of "Raw Milk" on farms. The Insurance Companies' advertisement picturing the old-fashioned well to point to the dangers of most rural drinking water although "Safe" for those conditioned to it; yet, definitely "unsafe" for "City Folks."

4. Arrangements will have to be made for blankets, sheets, towels, soap and toilet articles for each worker, since no farm has an abundance of such extra luxuries.

5. "A Clothes Kit" is another requirement. Have you ever seen a Farmer hatless in the broiling sun, or ankle deep in fertilized soil, manure or mud, wearing low open sandals?

There is a reason for every article of clothing a Woodsman or Farmer wears from high boots to long underwear as coveralls.

"What are you going to be when you grow up, Sonny?"

Will he be an electronics engineer?
Or help to revolutionize communication through radar, the new wireless telephone?
Will he open the door to new miracles in plastics?
Or will he be tomorrow's "forgotten man"—because his parents failed to save for his education?
Every dollar you put into war bonds or your savings account today helps to make your children's dreams come true tomorrow. Those dollars will protect their future as well as the glorious future of America.

Watch saving for—don't you think?

"Work-Gloves" are not effete on the farm.

The Farmer's wife is worth "Four City Workers' time on the Farm." However, unless properly planned for The Farmer's Wife would be kept indoors as usual doing the chores, getting the tables ready, preparing meals, washing dishes and clothes which the Youth and other Farm Workers could do if correctly detailed and directed.

Countless Mothers, capable trained women would "do anything to get away" with their children from the congested city dwellings because they are well aware that Farm Life with fresh food and good air would enable them and their children to return to War Work and School with renewed energy and health.

A few of the Mothers are trained to do the "Bookkeeping" for the Farm; some could take over the feeding of the help and the house chores; thus, release the experienced Farm-bred women for their own skilled work; other volunteers could take care of the children and many women would "help" with the outside work (to detail further women's work on the Farm and Rural Districts is another phase of this subject with no place herein).

As compared with other problems solved by Industry, Labor and "People" there is nothing insoluble about obtaining, training and inspiring workers for the Farms, if and when intelligent, humane thought and effort are given to every phase of the whole "Farm Help Situation."

U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE OFFICE OPEN TWO EVENINGS

The office of the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission in Newton will be open on Wednesday and Friday evenings until 9:00 p.m. beginning this week, Mr. Ralph E. Wight, Manager, announced today. This office is located at 290 Centre St., Newton.

It is realized that many men now engaged in the occupations listed by Paul V. McNutt as non-deferrable jobs may wish to register for jobs in war industries. Many of these men will be unable to call at the offices of the United States Employment Service during regular office hours, and it is for their convenience that these offices will be kept open on these evenings.

All men who will be affected by the order of the War Manpower Director are urged to register as soon as possible with the Employment Service rather than wait until April 1. The reason for this is that war industries can absorb only a certain number of workers a week and will be unable to provide work for an extremely large number at the last minute. If the Employment Service is given sufficient time it can find the best jobs for which these men are qualified. By registering for war jobs now these men can avoid much confusion, later.

Auburndale Red Cross Group Active

Since Wednesday, Jan. 6, the Surgical Dressings group for Auburndale has been meeting in the large and pleasant auditorium of the Auburndale Club at the corner of Melrose and Ash sts. Sewing machines have been set up in the adjoining lounge for those who sew. The oil shortage was the reason for the temporary move from the Methodist Church where the meetings have been held since the workroom opened in the summer of 1940. Mrs. Henry E. Keever has been chairman throughout this period and Mrs. Ashley L. Wright her assistant.

Each Wednesday a committee of ladies from the Methodist Church continue to prepare and serve a simple luncheon with at least one hot dish and coffee, for which the workers pay a modest fee. This luncheon has proved one of the outstanding features of this particular workroom, creating a feeling of sociability which is much enjoyed and resulting in the workers putting in longer hours than would otherwise be the case.

On January 13, under the able chairmanship of Mrs. John I. Heiback, a special luncheon was put on. Much of the food was donated and the amount of the fee was optional. A considerable sum was cleared for general expenses.

This workroom has an average attendance of over 70. There is plenty of material on hand and new workers are urged to join the group. The hours are from ten to four each Wednesday.

The Congregational Church is also open each Wednesday afternoon to four for Red Cross sewing. The ladies take box lunches and a goodly amount of work is turned out. Mrs. M. H. Brown of West Newton is in charge.

The general chairman for Red Cross in Auburndale is Mrs. Franklin K. Hoyt.

Gardeners Here to Enlist in NGP

The good old family custom of eating three meals a day is being seriously upset by the shrinkage in food supply. This condition will worsen. The proposed rationing system will insure share and share alike but the shares are likely to be small. What do we intend to do about it? Just draw in the old belt another hole and force a cadaverous grin? We can do better than that, and the Extension Service has set up a plan intended to bring sweat to the brow and satisfaction to the stomach.

In addition to giving every assistance to farmers in their effort to produce more food, the home gardener will receive help likewise.

Every city and town in the State is to be organized under Governor Saltonstall's NGP (Nutrition-Garden-Preservation) plan which will result in nutrition, improved gardens, more of them, and the preservation of our food.

In Middlesex County the plan works this way: The Chairman of War Services in your town will call together representatives from various organizations such as the Garden Club, Public Health, Rotary Club, Kiwanis, and from any other interested group or institution. Also individuals who were active in the same field last summer will attend this meeting. A member of the County NGP staff will be present to help organize these representatives into the NGP Board. The County worker will explain that it is the responsibility of this board to make known to all in the city, town or community that instruction in nutrition, gardening and canning will be given by the Extension Service. First, the home gardening program will be promoted. Speakers will be available for mass meetings; printed information will be provided and every interested person, even to the most unskilled novice, will have an opportunity to learn how to grow a successful garden. Your soil will be tested free of charge and proper plant food recommended.

Later in the season, nutrition and canning meetings will be held. While the stock on hand is running higher.

Valentine's Eve Event To Be Held

A box social followed by an old-fashioned square dance will be a special St. Valentine's Eve event sponsored by the Community Nursery School at the Parish House of St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls, Feb. 13th, at 8:00 p. m.

The members planned the event with a twofold purpose, first, to afford a jolly evening for persons within walking distance in these gasless days and second to acquaint more young folk in the Newton Lower Falls, Wellesley Hills, and Wellesley Farms area with the social activities of the non-sectarian nursery school.

Proceeds will be used in support of the nursery school. Members of the Sponsoring Committee are: Mrs. Archibald Barron, Newton Lower Falls; Mrs. Edward Barron, Wellesley Farms; Mrs. Clyde Casady, Newton Lower Falls; Mrs. Clinton Scott, Newton Lower Falls, and Mrs. Keith Paxton, Wellesley Hills.

Rotary Club

The speaker Monday, Feb. 1 was Kurt Thompson, president of the Paramount Home Improvement Corporation of New England. The business of this concern was largely derived from enclosing porches, but now it is practically 100 per cent in war work. At the present time the company is turning out 1,000 shell crates a day. These interesting objects are built according to strict government length. When assembled each will contain a number of shells spelling bad news for the AXIS powers. It was in the fall of 1942 when Kurt's home improvement work was drastically reduced by government orders prohibiting a building owner from spending more than $200 a year in improvements. So taking the long gamble that a far-sighted businessman must take, Kurt bought a vacant mill in Newton Centre and then went after government war contracts. He now orders lumber in several carloads every week and has had to turn down much non-government work for lack of additional facilities. The labor situation has been relatively good although the company could operate two or even three shifts if wood workers could be obtained. Every businessman with vision has some things he wants to do and Kurt's hope is that soon his shop will be making wooden parts for airplane and glider construction. When success leads to success it is safe to say that this vision may soon become a reality.

Next Monday Mr. A. G. Hazeltine, secretary of the Woodsville River, N. H. Club, 195th District, will visit our club and will bring a professionally produced and colored movie showing the White Mountains in spring, summer, fall, and winter—the "Old Man," the Flume, Mount Washington, the Presidential Range, Franconia Notch, Dixville, etc. This is a timely subject because it will signify that spring and summer vacations are not far distant.

PLANNING TODAY FOR TOMORROW'S WORLD

Mink Coat, Valued At $1700 Is Stolen

The theft of a mink coat valued at $1,700 from the home of Harry Parritz, 56 Cotton st., Newton, was reported to the Newton police on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Parritz on returning home at 6:45 p. m., after being absent since shortly after noon found that three rooms of the house had been ransacked and the coat was missing. Jewelry and other valuables had not been taken by the thief who apparently departed from the house through the cellar door the key of which was found on the floor, and the footprints in the snow that led from that door.

Another break was discovered at the home of William Doten, 32 Commonwealth pk., Newton Centre, the burglar gaining entrance by breaking a pane of glass in the cellar door. As far as could be learned nothing had been stolen. The break was discovered by Mrs. Doten when she returned home at 8:30 p. m., after being away from the house since 11 a. m. Lt. Daniel Crowley and Sgt. Richard L. Bannon are investigating both of these burglaries.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together." These words from Psalms 34:2, 3 comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, February 14, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be: "Soul." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Wherefore my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure" (Philippians 2:12, 13).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "The divine Mind is the Soul of man, and gives man his religion over all things. Man was not created from a material basis, nor bidden to obey material laws which Spirit never made; his province is in spiritual statutes, in the higher law of Mind" (p. 307).

COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB OF WEST NEWTON

Rabbi Levi Olan of Temple Emmanuel, Worcester, will speak at the next meeting of the Community Service Club of West Newton on Wednesday, February 17th, at the Second Church at 2 p. m. Rabbi Olan's interests are many and varied, and indicative of his general appeal to all types and religions is the fact that he travelled over the country with a Catholic priest and a Protestant minister in a triologue before many audiences, on a question of Good Will.

Mrs. William E. Worcester will preside during the business meeting and Mrs. C. L. Hawthaway will present the month's speaker, Mrs. Leslie P. Phinney will be in charge of the sale of War Bonds and Stamps. Mrs. Maurice E. Peters, Hospitality chairman for the month and her committee will serve tea following the program.

SPECIAL LINCOLN EXHIBIT AT NEWTON CENTRE BRANCH LIBRARY

An interesting exhibit of Lincoln items collected over a period of years by a local man, Mr. Claude E. #### The Dover Road

The Drama Club of the Newton High School under the direction of Mrs. Jean Wiens will present "The Dover Road" on Friday, Feb. 12, at 2:30 p. m., and Saturday Feb. 13, at 8:15 p. m. Members of the cast are: Richard Michaels, Betty MacGill, Barbara Simmons, William Larkin, Morris Fried, Richard Holden, William O'Halloran, Constance Mosher, Alice Fredey and Lester Bixby.

The comedy gives a series of amusing incidents, for on the Dover Road within the shadow of its famed white cliffs lives Mr. Latimer whose concern is the successful and happy termination of other people's love affairs. En route for the English Channel and Calais, couples very unexpectedly find themselves within his home and under his influence. Thus is created the background for a superb "comedy of errors."

DELAY IN FLOODING SKATING AREAS

Recreation Commissioner F. Ewing Wilson announced on Monday that there will be no effort made to provide skating areas at Bulough's Pond, Crystal Lake, and Ware's Cove until the accumulation of snow has disappeared. In normal times Commissioner Wilson stated the ice would be put in condition for skating despite a heavy snow fall but in order to conserve gasoline and labor it was necessary to abandon the task for the present.

LASEL JUNIOR COLLEGE

LINCOLN'S ROAD TO VICTORY

We have a war to win. We are celebrating this week the birthday of a war-winning president. How did he do it?

It is hard to conceive the difficulty of the task which faced Lincoln. He was under the incessant pressure of office-seekers, who crowded the corridors and anterooms of the White House. His every move was subject to the violent criticism of a large section of the press. Even in his own cabinet he was often treated patronizingly, if not with contempt. Yet amid all the confusion and under the pressure of great decisions he maintained an inward calm at the height of the storm, with clear vision of the course the ship of state should sail.

Lincoln conceived his task to be to preserve the nation's unity. He saw that to do so meant that first of all he must present a pattern of that unity in those close to him. Out of a group of conflicting personalities—small-visioned, jealous, divided by political points of view, and including men who had been leading contenders for his own high office—he pulled his cabinet into a team united in the cause of victory and union. With infinite patience, with dry humor, with constant insight and faith in the individual greatness and capabilities of each of them, he won even those among them who, like Sumner, looked upon him as their inferior. His own unwavering purpose showed them that higher altitude where the country's need became the paramount concern.

It will take such a spirit today to resolve the conflicting interests of industrial, political and other groups whose concern is with any lesser goal than the one clear necessity of the country's survival.

His was not the driving energy born of hatred, nor was there any trace of appeasement in him. He achieved that miracle which was the mark of his greatness, a mind firmly set on the prosecution of the war to its conclusion, yet without any of the bitterness which might otherwise have clouded his vision of the real principles which were at stake. He could say, "With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right,"—a spirit that friend and foe alike could agree held the answer to the problems of peace and reconstruction. If our enemies today can be convinced that that same spirit will prevail in any postwar settlement, the progress of the war itself will be greatly shortened.

We need not wait for a Lincoln today. What about a lot of little Lincolns? The future peace of the world may depend on thousands of ordinary people who have learned what he learned under the stress of conflict, the secret of wisdom and steadiness and unflinching purpose. "I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me were insufficient for that day." We shall find our sufficiency as he found his.

A NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENT

In over-subscribing its quota of $315,000 in the United War Fund Campaign, a huge sum, Newton and its citizens may justifiably be proud of this notable achievement. Mr. Neil Leonard, chairman of the United War Fund here, accomplished a herculean task. He, as the directing head of the campaign, knows better than anyone else, that the task could not have been, and would not have been, accomplished had it not been for the unselfish, untiring efforts of the hundreds of citizens who gave freely of their time and effort that Newton now, as in the past, might stand among the leaders. These men and women are deserving of the sincere gratitude of every citizen of this city. That they have it, we have no doubt.

In over-subscribing its quota Newton and its citizens have proved they want to help in a united war effort, they want to aid those who are helped and benefited by the funds secured.

Mr. Leonard has proved himself a capable organizer and a capable leader. His many assistants and faithful workers have proved they were going to put Newton "over the top" and "over the top" they did put our community. They achieved notable results—results not to be surpassed by any community participating in this war effort. Congratulations!

So that the fliers in a distant aviation camp can have meat, a packer in Southern California sends his big refrigerator truck out into the desert and loses money on each trip. That man can advertise "Share the meat" with the authority of having practiced what he preached. Can you?

POLITICS

WITH COLOR

By F. W. C.

National Politics

It is extremely interesting to watch the behind-the-scenes manipulation of the Republican machinery all over the country. My readers may recall a column I wrote late in 1942 anent the rather crude efforts of certain G.O.P. leaders, who couldn't bear the thought of having Wendell L. Willkie as their standard-bearer another time. First, Senator Taft of Ohio sounded off in a speech of personal renunciation, at the same time pledging his hearty support to the Governor of his own state, John W. Bricker. Next, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan solemnly withdrew from the race in 1944 and intimated that it would be wise for the Republican party to draft its nominee from new timber, preferably from a more youthful group. That, of course, was a back-handed slap at Willkie, who ruined the hopes and ambitions of Messrs. Taft, Vandenberg and Dewey in 1940. Then came the Dewey statement in New York, assuring his constituents that he would, if elected Governor of New York, serve the full four-year term.

All the above boiled down to the fact that the 1944 nominee would have to be drawn from among the 1940 dark-horses or from an entirely new group of political white hopes. In the former classification we find men like Bricker of Ohio, Gov. Stassen of Minnesota, Gov. Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Joseph W. Martin of New York, and Joseph P. Kamp of New York. At present the minority leader in the House of Representatives in Washington and, possibly, Senator McNary of Oregon. Just who can be included in my second group today is problematical. Doubtless Senator Bridges of New Hampshire has some ardent backers; so has Senator Martin of Vermont. It is also possible that there will be a few Republican Governors throughout the country who may see fit to erect lightning-rods before very long. I don't propose to give any of these gentlemen any encouragement just yet, provided they favor Mr. Gov. Saltonstall, allows his name to remain in circulation seriously.

My final thought on this topic is this: it is not possible that the Republican leaders are making a grave mistake in laying their plans at this moment without giving any special consideration to the ideas and wishes of the "much-abused voters," who, in the last analysis, are the people who actually elect our President? My frank opinion is that the rank-and-file of the voters are still tremendously interested in Wendell Willkie, despite the efforts of his powerful enemies to create the impression that his world-wide tour was a partial flop. That article in Collier's, for example, didn't do the Indiana statesman a bit of good. If the true story behind that article should be made public, however, the net result might be a gain for Willkie.

Keep on the look-out for some very subtle propaganda in behalf of Gov. Bricker of Ohio. I have reason to believe that some Bricker money has already been invested in Massachusetts publicity. More about that a bit later on.

Cocoon Grove

So many people are still concerned about the Cocoon Grove investigation and so many have asked me to keep the subject before my readers that I am making one or two comments herewith. In the first place, it has already occurred to me that our canny Attorney General has, perhaps, been playing an extremely cagey little game with the big-shot racketeers and the small-time number-pool excitement in order to further divert the attention of racketeers and public alike. Now we seem to have a situation in which the two investigations tie in together very closely. Maybe it is all part of the same big picture puzzle. Maybe we are due for some extremely startling developments in Boston and vicinity. Maybe there will not be a single political figure in Boston who will escape the glare of the spot-light. Maybe something worse than the spotlight is headed for some of our prominent Boston glamour boys. Who knows?

Colonel Hammond and Co.

I suppose I am walking where angels fear to tread, but I would like very much to get the low-down on the Hammond ouster. Rep. Clampt of Springfield fooled the ladies at the widely-advertised hearing at the State House recently and declined to give Col. Hammond's backers a chance to air their grievances. That rather puzzled me, because it seemed to me that the ladies were entitled to their day in court. Certainly our civilian defense set-up is a matter of considerable importance; so, too, is the problem of civilian morale. If there is a small cancer lurking beneath the surface somewhere, let's drag it out into the daylight and remove it. Politics has no business in civilian defense. Nobody will disagree with that statement, I feel sure. So, gentlemen, cannot we have a little more light on this controversial problem? Cannot we hope for the answers to the score or more questions which must be in many people's minds? Personally, I have no idea whether or not Col.

February 22—26

What is Point Rationing?

Point Rationing is a system of rationing a group of related or similar commodities which can be substituted for one another in actual use.

How Does Point Rationing Work?

The Government will group together a number of similar or related commodities, such as various canned foods, or meats, and each item in the group will be given a "point value." Scarce items will have a high point value and plentiful items will have a low point value. The numbers on the stamps are the points. The letters signify the time period when the stamps may be used. The color designates the program! The blue stamps are to be used when buying any kind of canned or bottled fruits and vegetables, canned or bottled juices, and soups, frozen fruits and vegetables and dried fruits. The Red stamp will be used later for meats. Cereals and grain foods are not now rationed.

How to Shop Under Point Rationing

You must know the money-price and the point-value of the commodity. You must give the storekeeper dollars and cents and point stamps. You must learn to budget your points so that they will last for the entire ration period. When you have spent all your points for the month you will not be able to buy any more of the items rationed until the next ration period begins. The point value is the same for each item in all stores throughout the country. The Official Table of Point Values will be displayed in all stores. Ceiling Prices must be on display in all stores. Insist on seeing these lists. Do not pay more in "points" than listed. Do not pay more in "price" than the "ceiling." Spend wisely! Use your old ration book for Sugar, Coffee and Shoes.

Things To Remember About Point Rationing

Things to remember on the coming point rationing of canned and processed fruits, vegetables, soups and juices. Registration for new ration books will be held during the week of Feb. 21. The point system of shopping will start on March 1. Every person who has War Ration Book One is eligible for War Ration Book Two. One person may register for the entire family. Registrants should take to the registration place the coffee-sugar books of the entire family and a report of the amount of rationed goods on hand.

To Hold Union Services Due To Oil Situation

Mr. Heath of the Baptist Church and Rev. H. Robert Smith of Grace Church will preach on alternate Sundays with Mr. Heath as the preacher this coming Sunday. ### PLANNING TODAY FOR TOMORROW'S WORLD

Sunday Feb. 14, Dr. Alvin H. Hansen, professor of Political Economy at Harvard University, will lead the second in a series of Sunday evening forums under the above theme. Dr. Hansen will speak on the subject, "Economic Aspects of Tomorrow's World." Dr. Hansen has served in many outstanding capacities advising in matters of policy and program for the Government on the problems of war and peace economics. He now serves on the Advisory Council of Social Security and is a member of the Social Science Research Council. These forums are being held in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church in Newton Centre and will begin promptly at 8:00 p. m.

TRANSFERRED TO NAVAL AIR STATION AT PENSACOLA, FLA.

Naval Aviation Cadet Winslow Franklin Beckwith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Beckwith, 4 Winthrop st., West Newton, has been transferred to the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Fla., after successful completion of the primary flight training at Squantum, Massachusetts.

After three months of advanced flight training as a Naval Aviator, Cadet Beckwith will pin on his wings as an Ensign in the Naval Reserve, or Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve. Cadet Beckwith was graduated from the Newton High School. He received an A.B. degree from Boston University and an LL.B. degree from Harvard Law School, Cum Laude.

He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, National Honor Society and Lambda, Delta Theta Phi, law fraternity.

Hammond was given a raw deal. There are, presumably, two sides to this controversy. So far, I have heard much more in favor of Col. Hammond than against her. Let's have the other side of the picture where we can all see it and pass judgment.

Services Mark 60th Anniversary

A congregational service of thanksgiving was held Sunday morning by Rev. Charles O. Farrar of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Newton Highlands, in observance of the 60th anniversary of the first service of the parish house which was held in Feb. 1883 at 3 p. m., in Knights of Honor Hall at Walnut and Lincoln sts., the present site of the Newton Trust Co. Rev. George W. Shinn, D. D. who was then the rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Newton, conducted the service which was attended by 118 persons despite a stormy day, and a collection which was taken up and was the first money contributed toward the church.

On May 1, 1883, ground was broken for the church at Walnut st., and Lake ave., and on July 19 of the same year the first service of the church was held. In 1902 the original church was moved across the street to its present site and was later enlarged. It now has a membership of 650 with Stanley Waters as senior warden and Albert E. Rust as junior warden.

VITAL FUEL

Saved by Gold Bond Insulation Newton home owners can cooperate with Uncle Sam by insulating their home now with National Gypsum's Gold Bond Rock Wool.

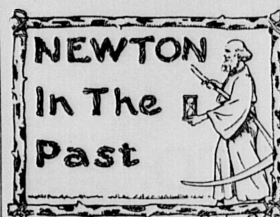

The United States Department of the Interior, Bureau of Reclamation, has issued a circular No. 7166, titled "Home Insulation An Effective Conservation and National-Defense Measure," is available now and will be sent to all interested parties by John A. Cuneo, District Manager of the National Insulation Company. This bulletin gives complete information on tests made by the Government on fuel savings, elimination of drafts and balancing of upstairs temperatures. It points out the difference of summer comfort, the difference in upstairs bedrooms between temperatures insufferable or sleeping and reasonable comfort.

Each year, according to the National Fire Protection Association, fires occur in nearly 400,000 places where people live and cause the death of 7,500 persons, mostly women and children. Incombustible heat-insulating barriers of Gold Bond Rock Wool in roofs and side walls make even frame buildings slow burning. In earlier years, when insulation cost more, we stressed its fire resistance more than comfort and fuel savings. The George Washington shrine at Mt. Vernon was completely insulated in the recommendation of the U. S. Government Bureau of Standards because mineral wool would inhibit the spread of fire.

According to this bulletin "Insulation is no better than the man who installs it." This is absolutely true and because National Insulation Company's crews are the finest available, you can be assured of a perfect insulation job. Gold Bond Rock Wool is one of the hundreds of products manufactured by the National Gypsum Company in their 21 plants in this country.

National Gypsum Company manufactures many other defense materials besides their Gold Bond Rock Wool. Metal landing fields for airplanes and their huge bomb loadings in Bluebonnet, Texas, are other ways they are helping the war effort.

The National Insulation Company are the exclusive applicators of Gold Bond Wool in Eastern Massachusetts. John A. Cuneo, District Manager in this area, will be pleased to go over your heating problems with you. He can give you the names of hundreds of satisfied users and show you how you too can help the war effort by conserving vital fuel, besides making a substantial saving in your fuel budget.

Newton Graphic, February 8, 1918 A law has been passed at Washington known as the Mack bill requiring a man in the army or navy to give part of his pay to his wife or children. The government will also give them a family allowance while the man is in the service.

The drive in Newtonville for funds for materials for continuance of the war work by the women was a huge success, with $17,700 being raised.

The annual budget for city expenses was submitted a whole month in advance by the Mayor. It is estimated at $1,943,941.98, which is about $2,800 less than the figures of department heads. Last year's budget was $1,801,708.33, nearly $150,000 less than this year's figure.

To Convert To Coal Letters To The Editor During Summer

Public Buildings Commissioner Arthur Campbell has announced that the Newtonville Branch Library building on Walnut st., will be heated by oil for the remainder of the season and during the summer the boiler will be converted to the use of coal.

The Newtonville branch is the only one of the Newton Library buildings heated by oil as it uses less than 10,000 gallons of fuel oil it comes under the jurisdiction of the local Rationing Board which decided to permit the burning of fuel oil for the balance of the season. It will however, be required to turn back to the Rationing Board a portion of the stamps originally issued to it. The Newton police station and the Street Department garage will be converted to coal by order of the Federal Government as soon as possible.

W. C. T. U.

The Newton W. C. T. U. discussed the report from the Office of War Investigation on sale of liquor around camps at their February meeting recently. They found it an unfair report from several educational periodicals, as Senator Lee O'Daniel had already stated.

The meeting was well attended. A new member was added and plans were made to attend the hearings at the State House during March, regarding gambling and temperance.

Tea was served by Mrs. Sarah R. Lane and Mrs. Helen F. Skinner.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Sarah M. Hovenden, 60 Austin st., Newtonville, next Tuesday evening. The assisting hostess will be Mrs. Elizabeth Ashenden.

FRACTURES LEG

Mrs. Amelia Sandford of 292 Lake ave., Newton Highlands, slipped on the ice as she was leaving the home of a friend on Bowdoin st. on Saturday, fracturing her right leg. She was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

LETTER FROM A SERVICE MAN

December 27, 1942.

Newton Graphic: Just a note from one of your subscribers now somewhere in England. One year ago today the farthest thing from my mind was writing to you from this far off land under these conditions.

First impressions on landing was how green the countryside was. Visualize New Hampshire or Maine during July and you have a picture of the land. The people are brave and are bearing up under their various hardships. Rationing here is the real thing and even necessities are hard to obtain. We of the armed forces are rationed 2 bars of candy, 4 cigars weekly, this just being few of the articles. There hasn't been much progress seemingly so in these parts for at least 50 years. The blackout is the real thing and at night you are lucky to see 2 feet in front of you. Christmas Day we entertained 120 children and they all had a great time. Boxing day, the day after Christmas is a gala day here. The people enjoy the Pubs, a meeting place where they play darts, and dominoes, and drink beer. Hard liquors are difficult to obtain. The English enjoy their dancing and have many clever dance routines. American jazz goes big over here and they know every word of the modern numbers.

Will write again soon and if possible send me a GRAPHIC which I sure do miss.

From Sir Richard Saltonstall to His Kinfolk, Leverett Saltonstall, Gouverneur of His Majesty's Province of Massachusetts Bay in New England

GREETING

MY DEAR SONNE: DISQUIETING rumours have reached me here in my vmrked grave, somewhere in England (where my body was hid from the vengeance of King Charles, after the Restoration) that a situation exists in the Province which calls for speedy redress.

The spirit of John Matters, my Steward who cared for my property after my return to England, informs me that there have been erected all over our fair Province certain structures which mar the beauty of the countryside. Many of these awful edifices are owned by the feed of one of your predecessors in office. I hear that Mr. Bunnell K. C. hath fyled a bill of complaint on two of these monstrosities, one in Watertowne and the other at Mvdy Ruier, which will be heard at the court of Exchequer in the fall.

My Steward informs me also that one of these offences which stands on the land of my neighbor Thomas Brigan has been ordered removed forthwith by the Department of Public Works after much prevarication.

His spirit also tells me that the feed of many of my companions who came with me on the Arbellia, on our voyage from England in the olde worlde to New England in the new Worlde, have erected a Memorial on the banks of the Charles River in my plantation, now called Watertowne, which bears the names of their forbears and a fttave of myself, also a group of my companions, being addressed by Mr. George Phillips, of blessed memory, concerning an unjust tax apfired to fit in a body of Affittants without their consent.

Near the Memorial is one of these monstrosities called a billboard which advertises a Deull's brew. Likewise many others all over the Province call attention to a strong water called Whiskey, a name unknown to me in my time.

I hear too that these things are permitted by a body known as the Department of Public Works, a member of which a Dutchman dequates part of his time to them. This body I hear is responsible to you, who appoint them, and I learn too that the terms of this particular member, has ended and that you are inclined to reappoint him. He lives in a part of the Province bordering on the Dutch Province of New Netherlands and is supposed to have some political influence in that part of the Bay Colonie.

Another spirit tells me that you apfired to fit in a body of Affittants called the Senate of the United States? What is the United States? I never heard of them in my daye.

If this be true, I with you fuccess, but remember, my dear sonne, that I look to you to uphold the high ideals that once were mine and do not be influenced too much by Political Reasons.

Your true friends, who are a great many and who outnumber those who lue by Politicks, will be grieved to see you yield to this temptation.

Confider well what I say, remembering always that both Nature and Grace, both ever binds vs to relieve and refcve with our vmtoft and speediest power fuch as are deare to vs, where we conceive them to be rrvning vnecomfortable hazards.

Your truly and much affectionate friend in the nearest vnion, programs so well founded by Mr. Richardson. In retiring from the office of president, which he has held for five years, Mr. Richardson expressed his deep appreciation of the co-operation of the board of trustees, the medical and nursing staffs, and all those associated with the hospital, including the many volunteers in the Community, from the Red Cross, other organizations and individuals. Mr. Walker in accepting his election paid high tribute to the accomplishments under Mr. Richardson, calling particular attention to some of the major achievements: the new nurses' home, the new x-ray equipment, the new anesthetic program, and more especially the development of better public relations, co-operation with the Community Chest, and the establishing of the Bequest Council. It is noteworthy and evidence of a desire for better understanding of the problems of the hospital as related to the community that Mr. Bowen and Mr. McDavitt, both former members of the Chest Budget Committee, are today serving the hospital as members of the Board of Governors, one as treasurer and the other as vice-president.

Other officers elected were: First Vice President, Clarence G. McDavitt; Second Vice President, Paul T. Babson; Treasurer, Benjamin J. Bowen; Clerk, C. Raymond Cabot.

Trustees were also elected as follows: Term expires 1948, Benjamin C. Bowen, Archie C. Burdett, Charles M. Cutler, Henry T. Dunker, Mrs. John T. Lodge, Mrs. E. Ward Paine, W. Elliott Pratt, Jr., L. Sumner Pruney, John J. Robinson, Miss Mary C. Sawyer, James V. Toner, Henry A. Wentworth.

Term expires 1945—Mrs. Harriet E. Ferris, Sinclair Weeks. Of the foregoing Mrs. F. Ward Paine, Mrs. Harriet Ferris, and E. Sinclair Weeks were as newly elected members of the corporation added to the Board of Trustees for the terms of office indicated.

Prior to the meeting of the Board of Trustees which immediately followed the annual meeting a rising vote of appreciation to Mr. Richardson was adopted following remarks by Dr. Frank Clark who spoke on behalf of the medical staff.

At the Trustees meeting the following committees were elected: Board of Governors—Charles M. Cutler, Benjamin W. Guernsey, A. Leslie Harwood, Maynard Hutchins, E. Prentiss Jones, Clarence G. McDavitt, Mrs. Robert L. Studley, Joseph A. Wogan.

Dr. Frank Clark rendered a report for the medical staff reviewing the serious problem confronting the hospital today due to the large number of its staff in the military services and to the shortage of nurses.

Reappointed To Fourth Term

Vincent C. Stanley of 1395 Commonwealth ave., West Newton, was reappointed for his fourth term as Commissioner on Firemen's Relief at a meeting of the Lieutenant Governor, Acting Governor and Council held on Wednesday, Feb. 10, 1943.

WEST NEWTON WOMEN'S EDUCATIONAL CLUB

The West Newton Women's Educational Club will hold its next meeting on Friday afternoon, February 26th, at the Unitarian Church Parish House. The president, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath, will convene the business meeting promptly at 2 o'clock following which the program chairman, Mrs. C. Warren Howe, will introduce the mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. Roscoe F. Doliber, who will present a novelty program of home talent stars. Mrs. Doliber has planned an entertainment divided into three periods, Colonial, Gay Nineties, and Modern, depicted in costume story, song and dance. It will be refreshingly entertaining, at a time when our war-weary minds need relaxation. Following the program the hospitality committee Mrs. Eben L. Kirtley, chairman, will serve refreshments in the tea room.

The board appropriated $4,000 for the Medical Division of the Department of Municipal Defense to be used for the purchase of blankets, cabinets and other equipment (Continued on Page 6)

Schofield Elected Alderman-at-Large

Appointments and Other Matters Taken Up At Aldermen's Meeting

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday evening Frank P. Schofield of 11 Washington st., Newton, was unanimously elected alderman-at-large from Ward 7 to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of George E. Rawson who was recently elected a representative in the State Legislature from the Fourth Middlesex District.

The oath of office was immediately administered to the new alderman by City Clerk Frank M. Grant and after taking his place on the Board he was appointed by President Charles B. Floyd to the Franchises and Licenses Committee, the joint committee on schools and the mayor's address committee.

Alderman Schofield has been a resident of Newton for 40 years. He is treasurer of Channing Unitarian Church of Newton, a member of the Rotary Club, and is engaged in the furniture business. He is married and has five children, one of his sons is with the armed forces, also his son-in-law.

Alderman Slocum was appointed by President Floyd to fill a vacancy on the soldier's relief committee.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard submitted the reappointments of F. Ewing Wilson as Recreation Commissioner and a member of the recreation commission, and of John H. Underhill as a member of the recreation commission, for terms of three years.

The board voted to adopt traffic regulations requiring cars to stop on Auburndale ave. before entering River st., on Derby st. before entering Waltham st. and on Fairway Drive before entering Waltham st.

The board also voted to prohibit parking near 15 Foster st., Newtonville. The measure was recommended by the committee on street traffic in order to enable a physician to drive his car into his driveway.

A plan by which the Town of Brookline would be allowed to burn rubbish in the Newton incinerator at a charge of $1.50 per ton on a contract to run for a period of six months was blocked by the "charter objection" of Alderman John Temperley at the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night.

Alderman Theodore Lockwood chairman of the finance committee explained that the contractor who had been disposing of the rubbish for the town of Brookline had withdrawn and left the town in the lurch. The majority of members of the board were in accord with the plan which they considered a neighborly good deed. Alderman Temperley stated that he wanted more information on the matter before action is taken.

City Solicitor Bartlett ruled that no action could be taken on the matter Monday night because of the charter objection which automatically deferred the matter until the next meeting. A special meeting will be called on this matter in view of the emergency which exists in Brookline.

The board appropriated $4,000 for the Medical Division of the Department of Municipal Defense to be used for the purchase of blankets, cabinets and other equipment (Continued on page 6)

Large Group To Leave For Induction

The group of men from Boards 112, 113 and 114 who will leave on Friday, Feb. 26, to join the armed forces is one of the largest groups sent from Newton. Richard Trudo, a junior at Our Lady's High School, representing the three parochial high schools, will give the farewell address.

Rev. John A. Sheridan, pastor of Our Lady's Church, Newton, and Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, pastor of Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, will speak for the clergy.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard will address the group and Leslie A. Harwood, Jr., will speak for the three draft boards.

Roy S. Edwards, Chairman of the Citizens' Committee for Service to Newton Servicemen, will be the master of ceremonies and will present the gifts from his committee to the men. The toilet kits will be given in the name of the Parochial High Schools.

Music will be by the Newton High School Band. A Red Cross Unit will serve coffee and doughnuts to the group.

All citizens are invited to attend the send-off. Use of automobiles for this occasion has been legalized by a ruling of the O.P.A.

Is $437,556 Less Than Budget of Last Year

The 1943 Budget for the City of Newton was submitted to the Board of Aldermen by Mayor Paul M. Goddard at the meeting Monday night. The amount of the budget is $5,394,204.45 which is $437,556 less than the 1942 budget and $57,000 less than the amount expended last year.

The amount submitted by the Mayor is larger than the total figures submitted by the heads of departments as he has included a reserve fund of $70,000, although he has cut the requests made by department heads more than $40,000.

Increases for several heads of departments, many clerks and various other employees were recommended by the Mayor, and are in accordance with the step-rate schedules and are in addition to the bonus recently granted to all city employees.

The budget figures were referred by the Board of Aldermen to the finance committee who will study them and will give a hearing to each department head regarding his request before presenting a report to the Board. The Board has 60 days in which to study the figures before action is required.

In the Executive Department budget, the item for salary, clerical assistance, is recommended as $2,851.89 in place of the sum of $2,000 appropriated last year. The sum recommended for dog clinic expense is $1,370, compared with $1,957.45 expended last year, when two clinics were held. The appropriation of $218,000 for an employee's bonus, which was recently granted, is listed in the Executive Department budget. In the WPA division of the Executive Department budget, only $3,601 is recommended because the WPA is being ended this month. The sum expended last year was $37,929.73.

In the budget of the Municipal Defense Department, the sum of $20,302.50 is recommended by the mayor, compared with $41,614.70 expended last year. The items recommended are: A.R.P. office and report center, $15,500; clerical assistance $2,347.50; auxiliary fire force equipment, $1,200; auxiliary police force equipment, $3,000; publicity committee expense, $1,750; medical division expense, $4,000; war services division $2,500 (formerly Women's Division).

The salary appropriation recommended for clerical assistance in the Accounting Department is $10,448, virtually the same as was appropriated last year.

In the Treasurer's Department budget, the mayor recommends that the salary of the city treasurer be increased to $5,000, the amount that was paid to the former city treasurer. The present treasurer started last year at a salary of $4,500. The mayor also recommends that the salary of the deputy collector be increased from $2,750 to $3,000 and that the sum for clerical assistance be made $18,148 compared with $16,758 appropriated last year.

Raises For Assessors In the Assessing Department, the recommendation of the department was that the item for the salaries of the two assessors other than the chairman be set at $7,000, but the mayor recommended $6,900. The sum appropriated for this purpose last year was $6,700.

The City Clerk's Department budget contained a department request of $10,226 for clerical salaries, but the mayor recommended $9,932, compared with $9,776 appropriated last year.

The salary of the clerk-stenographer in the Soldier's Relief Department, which was $1,092 last year would be increased to $1,144, according to the mayor's figures. The sum of $27,000 was expended for soldiers' relief last year, but the department requests only $14,350 for this purpose this year.

Less For Engineers In the budget of the Engineering Department, the sum recommended for salaries of engineering assistants is reduced from $29,400 appropriated last year to $28,780 for this year.

Applicants To Register By Schedule Named

Starting with the holiday, February 22, Newton elementary and Junior High schools will be open daily from 9 to 5 through Friday, February 26, for the purpose of issuing War Ration Books Two. The Consumer Declarations to be used for this rationing will be delivered to Newton homes during the latter part of this week by the War Services Division of the Newton Committee on Public Safety. For those who do not receive this form, it will be permissible to use a reprint of the Consumer Declaration cut out of a newspaper. It appears on another page of the GRAPHIC.

Newton applicants should report to their neighborhood schools according to the following schedules:

Last names beginning with—
A—B ..... Monday, Feb. 22
C—F ..... Tuesday, Feb. 23
G—L ..... Wednesday, Feb. 24
M—R ..... Thursday, Feb. 25
S—Z ..... Friday, Feb. 26

A guide for remembering this order is "All Commodities Get More Scarce."

The teachers will be assisted by some volunteer workers. High school and junior high school students will assist as guides.

In no case will a War Ration Book Two be issued without the presentation of War Ration Book One. A person who has turned his War Ration Book One over to a store must secure this before he can hope to receive his War Ration Book Two. The absence or loss of a War Ration Book One can only be handled through the Newton Ration Board at City Hall.

The general plan for issuance of War Ration Book Two will be very simple. An adult member of a household brings the War Ration Books One for each member of the household, along with the Consumer Declaration for the entire household. On this declaration will appear the names of the members of the household with the numbers of their War Ration Books One; the number of pounds of coffee owned by the household on Nov. 28, 1942, minus one pound for each person whose age was 14 or more when War Ration Book One was issued; and the number of cans, bottles, and jars (8-ounce size or larger) of commercially packed fruits, vegetables, juices and soups, chili sauce and catsup owned on February 21, 1943, minus 5 for each person included in the declaration. The correct proportion of coffee stamps will be removed from War Ration Books One in those cases where there was an excess amount of process-d foods on February 21, 1943. A team of two workers will help each applicant.

Newton has planned an adequate force of workers serving 8 hours each day in order to have the rationing program operate smoothly, efficiently, and in a minimum of time.

A. R. P. NEWS

In accordance with the Army Regulations No. 1 on Air Raid Protection and the Government's executive order number 52, Newton air raid sirens and horns will hereafter be tested one day each week. The test will be made each Saturday at 12 noon.

—A.R.P.—
Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy, chairman of the War Services Division of the Newton Committee on Public Safety, held a meeting with the village chairmen and heads of various committees on Tuesday February 16. Among those present to discuss the current problems of the organization were: Mrs. James Dunlop, Mrs. Thomas Beal, Mrs. Sterling N. Loveland, Mrs. Albert Everts, Mrs. Worthing West, Mrs. Allison T. Budgell, Mrs. David A. Rockman, Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin, Mrs. George I. Engle, Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, Mrs. Milton Levenson, Mrs. Ernest C. Angevine, Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, Mrs. Henry T. Patch, Miss Katherine Wilkins, Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer, Mrs. Mabel Webber and Mrs. G. Elliot Stickney.

—A.R.P.—
New Raid Signals
WHEN YOU HEAR a long steady blast on an air raid siren, horn or whistle—this is the blue signal—this means enemy planes probably coming your way.

Black out the lights in your home and business house. Either draw your blackout curtains or turn the lights off.

If you're in your automobile on the street or road—switch your lights to the low beam—proceed wherever you were going—proceed with caution—start thinking about getting a safe place.

If you're walking—continue to walk—start thinking about where you will go if a raid signal follows.

A series of short blasts on the air raid horn or whistle or a rising and falling sound on the air raid siren—this is the red signal—this means enemy planes are overhead. Keep your lights blacked out.

If you're riding in your automobile—pull over to the side—stop—turn your lights off—get out—go to the nearest air raid shelter.

If you're walking—go to the nearest air raid shelter—get off the street.

If you're on a street car or bus—get out—go to the nearest air raid shelter.

REMEMBER: After the red signal, there will be a blue signal. This does not mean "all clear." This means enemy planes no longer overhead. Keep alert. Enemy planes may return.

YOU MUST: Keep your lights blacked out.

If you were in your automobile prior to the red signal, you may get back into the light beam on the low beam and proceed wherever you were going. Proceed with caution.

If you were walking prior to the red signal, you may resume walking. If you were in a street car or a bus, you may get back into it and proceed.

REMEMBER: A blue signal may not always precede a red signal. There may not be time enough. But a blue signal always follows a red signal.

Whenever you leave your home or business house, the lights must be blacked out or attended.

—A.R.P.—
Subject to the approval of the First Service Command, the City of Newton will announce the "All Clear" by voice over the R.C.A. sirens and will also sound the bells of the fire alarm system giving two rounds of 2-2-2-2. Other indications of the "All Clear" will be the switching on of street lights that were out during the blue (blackout) or an announcement transmitted by radio, telephone, police or other means.

The above has been approved by the Newton Committee on Public Safety.

RADIO BROADCASTS ON POST-WAR CONDITIONS

The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America announces a series of broadcasts to be given on Sunday afternoons over thirty stations from Massachusetts to California.

"Speakers chosen from the outstanding personalities in each field will be invited to speak on each program to bring news of the latest developments in his or her new field of education or industry."

John Hancock Co. In Annual Meeting

Boston, Mass., February 8, 1943. . . . Since Pearl Harbor, the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company has purchased $117,040,000 in War Bonds—total purchases in the year 1942 being $102,540,000, it was announced today by President Guy W. Cox at the 80th annual policyholders' meeting.

Outlining the accomplishments of the John Hancock insurance company, President Cox observed: "The progress of the company during the year is most impressive. The real test of progress is the increase of insurance in force, and aided by reason of the apparent determination of policyholders to hold on to their life insurance policies—possibly with a view to post-war needs—insurance in force, which increased $464,746,466 in 1942, a new record and brought the total to $5,618,573,069, the largest amount in the company's history."

Admitted assets at the close of 1942 amounted to $1,288,048,650, representing a gain during the year of $121,550,284, the largest in the company's history. In connection with the annual meeting, reported that the market value of the John Hancock's bonds is more than $28,500,000 greater than their amortized value used for asset figures.

Assigned liabilities amount to $1,800,097,157, of which $1,050,773,134 constitutes the legal policy reserve. The general surplus or safety fund is $1,079,514,939, or 9.14 per cent of the liabilities it protects.

Total gross income was $282,645,332, including premiums of $221,218,118. This total is $10,728,134 more than in the previous year and the gross as well as premium incomes are the highest in the company's history.

Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries in 1942 amounted to $99,673,282.

An interesting feature of the report was the announcement of the increase in group insurance, which in 1942 became a larger part of the business of the John Hancock than in any previous year.

"This growth," said President Cox, "indicates that group insurances have become recognized generally as an essential plan in industrial relations. Today these values are emphasized by the fact that millions of war workers are among those covered; the idea prevails that the protection afforded by group insurance gives the worker a sense of security that helps bring out his best effort and that group insurance is making a desirable contribution to the war effort."

In conclusion Mr. Cox stated: "There are about 67,000,000 life insurance policyholders in the United States, and fully one-tenth of this number are insured by our company. Life insurance may be regarded as an institution of democracy as it has grown and developed in democratic countries as nowhere else. It is an achievement that represents democracy in action and has come to be essential, not only to the welfare of its members, but also to the communities and to the governments in and under which they live, in times of war as well as in times of peace."

NEWTON COMMITTEE ON NURSING FOR WAR SERVICE

Newton women with nurse's education or experience who are in a position to offer any nursing service on a full- or part-time basis, will be making a valuable contribution to the war effort by coming forward and being classified according to their nursing possibilities.

In line with a nationwide movement to insure adequate war time nursing service, interested workers in Newton have formed a local committee on Nursing for War Service which will function as a member of the Nursing Council for War Service of Greater Boston and as a part of the Health Division of the Newton Community Council.

Miss Grace Lawrence of the Newton Health Department is chairman. Associated with her as secretary and representative to the Boston Council is Mrs. Hilja Nelson, Director of the Newton District Nursing Association. Mrs. H. G. Hoskins of the Red Cross Emergency Nursing Committee will serve as chairman of publicity. Other members of the committee include Mrs. Spelden H. Speare, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Robert Moore, Director of Red Cross Nurses' Aides, Mrs. Charles J. A. Wilson, chairman Nursing Committee of the Red Cross, Miss Margaret Norcross, Director of R. C. Home Nursing, Miss Mabel McVicker, Director, School of Nursing, Newton Hospital, Miss Grace Russell, Nursing Service to First Aid Station under Office of Civilian Defense, and Miss Charlotte Simon, Health Adviser at the Newton High School.

The objectives of this group will be to coordinate the activities of all agencies in Newton which are concerned with nursing for the purpose of meeting the needs of the armed forces as well as those of the community and hospitals. Lists will be compiled of all available nurses living in Newton including registered nurses, both active and inactive, attendant and practical nurses. Such lists will be needed to facilitate the work of the committee.

The program will embrace the study of community nursing needs, service for the armed forces, supply and distribution to schools of nursing and community services, use of inactive nursing personnel, recruitment of students for schools of nursing and community of the nurse auxiliaries.

Every effort is being made to obtain an accurate and complete report of potential nursing power in every community through a national inventory of nurses. Registered nurses are urged to fill out and return promptly the survey cards being sent out by the United States Public Health Service or if one is not received, to write at once to Helene G. Lee, Special Agent U. S. P. H. S., 420 Boylston st., Boston.

The Newton Committee on Nursing for War Service will bend every effort toward reducing the present shortage in nursing services and will be organized and functioning so as to be able to meet immediately any emergency in this connection.

Alice In Wonderland

THE CEILING MYSTERY

Serial No. 5

"I'm going into the department store to do some errands," announced Alice when they were in the street.

"Are there ceilings there, too?" inquired the Mad Hatter.

"Of course," said Alice.

"No," said the Mad Hatter, "not of course; there were no ceilings in some parts of the market."

"Well," said Alice, pushing the revolving door at the shop entrance so that there was no chance for argument, "no ceiling is a sort of ceiling nowadays."

Once inside, in spite of an attempt to be polite and not stare, they gazed upward with such rapid attention that they got in everyone's way.

"We'd better get over here in the corner," suggested Alice, "where there aren't many things to sell or many people."

Forgetful now of how much attention they attracted, they studied the ceilings. "It's amazing," breathed the March Hare at last, "I had read about it, but I had no idea it would look like this!"

Then he became animated. "I'll explain it to you," he offered eagerly, "for I know you haven't the faintest idea what it's all about. Follow carefully."

"You'll notice that some of the ceilings are uneven like many of those in the market. Those are the ones that are still just as they were last May, with each merchant selling at his own highest March price. Then you'll notice that there are others which are uneven but which look artificial, as if they imitated the first ones. Well, that's just what they do, because they are ceilings on things that weren't sold in March but that were so much like the things that were sold that they were given similar prices by each merchant under rules very carefully laid down by OPA."

"Yes," asserted Alice reflectively, "and there are other kinds of uneven ones, too."

"Those," said the March Hare, "are due to the fact that so many things weren't sold in March (summer, autumn, and winter clothing, for instance) that OPA had to make special formulas to adjust them."

"The main idea," he went on, "is to keep the cost of living for the consumer as near the March 1942 level as possible."

"There are some flat dollars-and-cents ceilings, too," observed the Mad Hatter.

"Yes, and there will be more of those probably as time goes on, just as there will be in the food market," replied the March Hare.

"What," asked Alice, "are the shadowy ceilings back of these?"

The March Hare laughed. "You didn't notice them in the market, did you? They were there just the same. They are the whole-salers' and manufacturers' ceilings. As consumers, we're concerned directly only with the retailers' ceilings, but the dealers and producers have theirs too, established at the same time ways under many rulings and many adjustments. It's not unsystematic; it's merely big and complicated. But it all boils down, as I said before, to keeping the cost of living for us consumers as near as possible to the level of March 1942. And it does it, except for food—believe it or not."

"I'll take your word for it," said Alice, "and now I'll do my errands and we'll go home."

THE NEWTON HOSPITAL AID BENEFIT SHOP

Now that spring is not far away, mothers of children of school age will be looking for suitable clothing. The suggestion of the Benefit Shop at 795 Washington st., Newtonville, is that they be prepared for this time with something the kiddies have not seen before, yet will not be as expensive as new goods. For instance, the "jumper dress" so popular at present, may be made with practically no work, and for this purpose, one table of dresses is marked only twenty-five cents. With the addition of a sweater or blouse, little daughter will feel she has something at last which her older sister has not worn first. Another rack is filled

WHY MILK IS SO VITAL TO AMERICA'S HEALTH—

MILK IN RELATION TO THE HEALTH OF THE BODY

The Body's Requirement for Health

PROTEIN
The body needs protein for growth, for building of muscles and repair of body tissues, its wear and tear. It also supplies 1/6 the energy.

FAT AND CARBOHYDRATE
The body must have food to make it "go" for work and play. 1/2 of this energy from food is supplied by fat, and 1/4 by carbohydrate.

CALCIUM
The body needs calcium to build strong bones and teeth. Calcium also helps the functioning of the heart, nerves and muscles.

IRON
Iron is essential to normal, healthy red blood. Blood is the carrier of all the food constituents to every part of the body.

VITAMIN A
Vitamin A protects eyesight, helps to prevent night blindness, promotes growth, and helps the body to build up resistance to infection.

THIAMINE
(VITAMIN B<sub>1</sub>)
Thiamine helps to keep the nerves healthy, helps growth, stimulates the appetite, aids the regular bowel movements, and helps the body to burn carbohydrate.

RIBOFLAVIN
(VITAMIN B<sub>2</sub> OR G)
Riboflavin promotes growth, helps to keep the skin healthy, helps eyesight, and is essential to the functioning of every body cell.

VITAMIN D
Vitamin D helps the body make the best use of calcium and phosphorus in building bones and teeth, helps to prevent rickets, and promotes growth.

How Milk Supplies the Body's Needs

One quart of milk supplies 1 ounce (30 grams) of protein which is about 1/2 the minimum daily requirement. It is a complete protein and supplies all of the substances for growth, for building of muscles and repair of body tissues, but supplies only 4% of the energy requirement. 1 quart of milk supplies the same amount of protein as 1/4 pound of meat.

Milk is an important fuel food needed for energy to work and play. Carbohydrate and fat of 1 quart of milk supply about 1/5 the daily requirement.

One quart of milk supplies more than the daily requirement of calcium for both the adult and child. 1 quart of milk also carries almost the daily requirement of phosphorus.

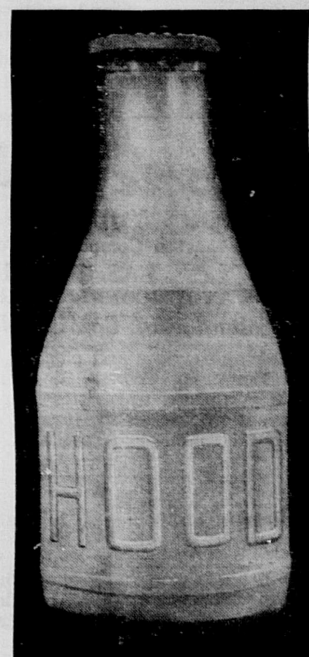

Milk is a valuable source of iron. One quart of milk provides about 1/5 of the daily requirement. 2 1/2 glasses of milk will give as much iron as 1 ounce of meat, or 1 egg.

One quart of whole milk supplies about 1/2 the adult's and youth's daily requirement of Vitamin A, and greater amounts for children of different ages, as seen in the chart below.

One quart of milk supplies about 1/2 the adult's and youth's daily requirement of thiamine, and greater amounts for children of different ages, as seen in the chart below.

One quart of milk supplies about 4/5 the adult's and youth's daily requirement of riboflavin, and greater amounts for children of different ages, as seen in the chart below.

Irradiated, metabolized and modified milk have greatly increased amounts of Vitamin D. One quart of fortified milk supplies about 400 units, the same amount of Vitamin D contained in 1 teaspoon of standard fish liver oil.

Important Constituents of the Body:

Phosphorus
Iron
VITAMINS

As other foods rich in nutritive value grow short, your family needs more and more milk. A quart daily for children, a pint for adults—these are minimum requirements. Remember, milk is "Nature's most nearly perfect food."

GEORGE WASHINGTON

Above all the great men of our country towers the mighty figure of Washington. Today, in our greatest crisis since his time, we should ask ourselves wherein his greatness lay.

George Washington was an able general, one of the ablest. But there have been greater generals. He had a vision beyond most of his contemporaries; yet he could not foresee all the complexities of future policy. He was a leader, wise as well as forceful, and yet he had more astute minds even in those around him.

Washington's greatness was above all a moral greatness, and therein lies his message to Americans today. He was guided always by the highest vision for the country. He lived for the nation and not for himself. The wealthiest man of his day, he had little to gain and much to lose by the Revolution. Yet he accepted the leadership of the ragged army and created out of it a force which set the nation free. No odds could overwhelm, no mischance or danger or hardship or treachery discourage this man. He saw the right course, and followed it with unshakable determination.

After the war was won, the same spirit guided Washington. The course of ease and responsibility would have led to his retirement; he could have cultivated his acres and helped to manage the affairs of his community. Ambition might have suggested another course; some men wanted to make him a dictator. But placing country before self, as always, George Washington agreed to serve as America's first President.

Under his leadership we learned the two primary lessons of national existence: how to defeat aggression without, and how to govern ourselves within. He held the key to this "total victory," because his own life was a pattern of the new nation he worked and fought to build.

George Washington speaks with a prophet voice to America. Today much is said about the great new world of the common man. But the new world will only come as men and women everywhere achieve the greatness of Washington. This greatness depends upon the willingness to make daily hard moral decisions in our own lives. The ordinary man may not be very brilliant, very able, very brave. Most of us aren't. But we can achieve the true greatness of always choosing the right course instead of the wrong, and fighting for it in every detail of our lives and of the nation's life. Guided by Washington's spirit, we can attain the stature of mature patriots. The man in the street can become the man of the hour.

In the birth-pangs of the nation, amid crises and problems, military, economic and political, the Father of his country offered this counsel; we would do well to heed it now: "Let us raise a standard," he said, "to which the wise and honest can repair; the event is in the hand of God."

POLITICS WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

Col. Hammond and Co.

My closing paragraph last week under the above caption stirred up one of our distinguished legislators to the extent of a half-hour telephone conversation on Sunday afternoon. Apparently my phraseology put the worthy chairman of the military affairs committee in a bad light and our local solon wished to straighten me out. Consequently, he launched into a technical discussion of the mechanics of the legislature as a whole as well as the technique employed by the various committees. Frankly, I am impressed by the rapidity with which our new members get acclimated on Beacon Hill. If I had been entirely ignorant of legislative procedure, I would have benefited tremendously.

Briefly, the situation appears to be something like this: Rep. Clampt's committee has quite a few bills to hear on the day in question. No promise had been made to give priority to the bill which interested the Hammond contingent. Furthermore, no member of the committee appears to have given the Hammond supporters any ground for feeling that the bill in question would be NECESSARILY open up the opportunity to trash out the merits of the so-called oyster of Colonel Natalie Hays Hammond. Incidentally, while I do not care to inject partisanship at this juncture, it occurs to me that the Democrats have been taking a most active part in the entire procedure. Rep. Neville of Cambridge, the minority leader, did his best to force a debate on the controversy. His motion for reconsideration of the Feb. 2 vote in the house was defeated by a vote along party lines. His aim was to bring the bill to the floor for a vote on the order calling for an investigation of the Public Safety Committee out of the Committee on Rules, which would normally hear the order in two weeks or so. Of course, down in Washington, it is the custom to bury an unpopular bill in the archives of the Rules Committee, which is tremendously powerful. Sometimes it takes a master-mind and a dynamic and fearless leader to blast the bill out of the Rules Committee. I shall watch with keen interest the procedure of our local Rules Committee.

Now, as to the merits of the case itself. I have a hunch that if the majority ever explodes publicly, those responsible for pressing the matter may wish that they had kept quiet. In other words, it is just barely possible that the people who are squelching the investigation, IF THAT IS THE CASE, are guided by rather decent motives. It is not possible that the distinguished lady Colonel may have a few faults? Perhaps some of these faults militate against her effectiveness as a leader in the vital work she has been doing so energetically for a long time. It might even be true that one or two army officers here and there found it difficult to collaborate with Col. Hammond. I wouldn't know. I do, however, know this much. No ambitious member of this or any other legislature is going to stick his neck out and engage in a controversy as hot and painful as this one, especially when the members of the fair sex do not seem to be able to agree among themselves.

Before leaving this topic, I want to say once more that I think it is in the public interest to clean this matter up once and for all. It is NOT just a political football. Maybe the G.O.P. is making a noble gesture and saving a lady's face. Maybe the Democrats, assisted by the pugnacious Auditor Mr. Buckley, are merely trying hard to embarrass a Republican Governor and to make a monkey out of a hard-working and patriotic Public Safety Committee, of which they are doubtless jealous. That is beside the point. The point is that the entire procedure of the Public Safety is infinitely more important to the state of Massachusetts and all its citizens than the political welfare of either major party or any of its members. Again I say, let's get down to cases and find out the facts. ALL the facts about the Hammond matter. If the facts warrant summary action, I am confident that our Governor will have more than enough courage to take that action.

Claire Botek Luce

Who would have thought that New England would furnish another Congressman Luce so soon after the retirement of the venerable Waltham Congressman, Robert Luce, who served us for so many years? Now we have a lady, the brilliant wife of Henry Luce, publisher of Time, Life and Fortune. Her maiden speech was a knockout. It had its echoes in England and in many other parts of the world. Those who are not already "air-minded" will do well to become so in the very near future. Also, it behooves us all to do a lot of intensive thinking about Stalin and Russia. If we do not, all our glorious post-war plans will be knocked into a cocked hat. Hats off to the charming Connecticut lady for another service also. She has now served notice on Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Dorothy Thompson, et al., that they can no longer monopolize the air-waves with their daily chit-chat. A new and far more appealing figure confronts us. She pleases the eye, the ear and the brain. It is my firm belief that she is "going places." Watch her smoke.

This WEEK, This WORLD

by Ted Friend

HITLER'S DEATH, at this time, would serve the United Nations no useful purpose. If anything, it would confuse world issues and provide the hard-pressed German junker class with a means of evading punishment for its crimes.

Not so, incidentally, the possible elimination by violent or other means of Mussolini who, for all his present low estate militarily has been much more the political master of Italy than Hitler has ever been of Germany.

Hitler, as well as his sadistic hocus-pocus Nazi ideology, may be expected to be conveniently eliminated by his bosses when he has apparently outlived his usefulness. Who are those bosses? They are the self-same junkers, generals, feudal landowners and industrialists who, under one guise or another, have attempted in times past to achieve mastery over Europe and through military might to rule over the world. The German inner circle, much like the Japanese Black Dragon Society which, adhering to its infamous Tanaka Memorial, has operated on a plan of action passed on from generation to generation.

Hitler will pass, but Hitlerism, which is the outward manifestation of the German will to dominate, will not pass. At least not if the German overlords can help it. Like Kaiser Wilhelm after the last war it will attempt to go underground, change its form, and come up again to make another effort to bend the world to its will.

There is but one way to assure the end of peace and that is the more grotesque than it is dangerous autocratic underlay which from time immemorial has schemed to assert itself as a master force, sometime using politics, sometime religion or race, and sometime the cunningness of a few clever men.

The "Unconditional Surrender" theme enunciated by Roosevelt and Churchill, with the blessing of Stalin, is assurance that the United Nations will be fully aware of German malignance and that it intends doing something permanent about it in the peace to come.

CHIEF DANGER in the State Department's North African policy of expedience is that if carried to a logical conclusion it will find American diplomats sitting down with Goebbels in an effort to outwit Hitler and H'mmer!

IT IS WHEN one looks beyond the confines of one's own country that one learns to properly evaluate the viciousness and the danger of the professional subversives.

When an Edward James Smythe calls Hitler a "Twentieth Century Messiah" one is inclined to score it up to a mental condition that is more grotesque than it is dangerous. And when a Robert Noble declares: "Japan has done a good job. . . I believe that this war is going to destroy America," the tendency of the right side is to shrug and murmur something about crackpots. Likewise when a Horace J. Haase brazenly blares out "The U. S. A. is fighting on the wrong side of this war, while the Germans and the Japanese are fighting on the right side," one is inclined to pass over it as funny rather than vicious.

However, the humor of it is conspicuous by its absence when the attack on democracy comes from abroad where the strong arm of the F. B. I. is unable to reach it. There is the glaring example of Dr. Arnulfo Arias, ousted President of Panama who went into exile in 1941 and who has turned up in pro-Axis Argentina where he has been doing a vigorous anti-United States job welding Fascists together with the slogan "Latin America for Latins."

Arias, educated in New York and Chicago, and at Harvard, who took his M.D., is a suave, handsome, vivacious and an ambitious propagandist who wants to see the United States humbled. If he can be instrumental in the bargain, in humbling or helping to destroy democracy so much the better.

Touting the age-crusted doctrine of "Panama for the Panamanians," which no America worthy of the name has ever flouted, Arias became President of Panama in 1940 in a campaign in which he said, "The words democracy, liberty, liberalism are so bandied about nowadays that they have no meaning. The democratic concept that all men are created equal and free is without foundation. . . The family must be subject to regulation in order that it may cooperate with the state in the education of the child."

The "Constitution" which Arias gave Panama boosted the presidential term from four to six years, barred immigration to Negroes and Chinese, and gave him the right to establish government monopolies and confiscate private property. As president he set up Youth Clubs of the Hitler variety, established his own private army and set about annoying the United States by refusing to allow it to build necessary air sites adjacent to the Panama Canal.

The Panama Canal is, of course, a vital nerve center of the hemisphere. In one speech Arias tactlessly wrote: "The Republic of Panama, though small and weak, and lacking the material resources for the defense of its rights, could, as a result of the high interests of the United States by granting concessions in its territory to obtain powerful countries which would have the material forces to defend it." Arias censured the provocative statement from his speech but dumbly failed to delete it from copies which he gave to newspapers.

Arias has succeeded in welding an organization in Argentina which, according to United States observers, is reaching frightening proportions. He is suspected of having ambitions of becoming caudillo of all Central America in the event Hitler and his henchmen win the war.

Arias, and his counterparts both within and beyond the confines of the United States, must be prevented from doing business if democracy is to be made secure.

FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH . . . Laval is about to be replaced by another two-faced Frenchman with Laval winding up in a concentration camp. The Soviet Union is now experimenting with the Soy bean as a solution to its food production problem; the Soy beans being used were raised in upper New York State where the weather and short growing season most resemble Russian conditions.

There are more than 10,000 American Indians in our armed forces, out of a population of less than 400,000. Vichy is ordering all its citizens to return to France. The Allies hope to have the Mediterranean cleared by July, and then British warships will be able to enter the Pacific battle.

Women will be trained for farm work this summer and sent to areas where severe farm labor shortages exist. The Nazis will shortly launch one of the greatest air attacks in history; the underground has been held back for a tremendous push probably in the spring. . . There will be separate High Commands for the attack on the Continent and the battle in Africa; one headed by an Englishman and the other by an American. . . If sports are banned for the duration, more parks and arenas will be utilized for drills, exhibitions, war rallies and games played by war workers. . . Newsprint will be paid for in 15 percent more before the year ends.

NEWTON ROTARY CLUB

Mr. Clarence C. Colby, Treasurer of the City of Newton, pictured very clearly with the use of various phases of the handling of the city finances. He pointed out that the lack of income through taxes during the first part of the year made it necessary to borrow money to meet the $500,000 per month expenses. This borrowing has been done on the extremely low rate of 4.23 percent interest in 1941, whereas this year it has increased to 38 percent.

Notwithstanding the remarkable improvements which our city enjoys, our indebtedness is being continually reduced. The beautiful and inspiring City Hall Building will be paid for in the next few years, and other bonds which cover mainly sewer extension, schools, and waterworks, will be largely retired in the next ten years.

83 percent of current expenses go, in order, to the following six departments: Schools, Street, Welfare, Police and Fire.

The revenue from Taxes is collected in the following percentages: from Real Estate 83 percent, Motor Excise 7 percent and Poll 91 percent. There is an extremely small amount which is not collected within a two year period.

One of Mr. Colby's projects for the future is to have the city's foreclosed property handled more efficiently.

Dr. Charles Liebman, who is in charge of the new X-ray department of the Newton Hospital, was named into the club as a new member. Jim Melcher Jr., a member of the U. S. Coast Guard was a guest of the Club.

NEWTON JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB

Miss Shirley Martin, Mrs. J. Vincent Morrison, and Miss Eleanor MacIntosh were high single winners at the bowling party sponsored by the sports committee, Miss Faith Stanton, chairman. The prizes consisted of war savings stamps. Following the tournament the swimming pool was made available for those wishing to participate in a competitive aquatic program arranged by Miss Margaret Bascom.

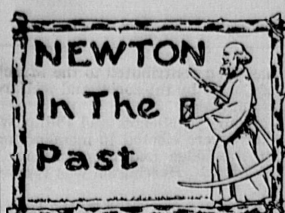

Others who were present included Misses Miriam Morrow, Ruth W. Aldrich, Lydia Mathes, Marjorie Goddard, Rhoda White, Hazel Noyes, Ruth Diefenbach, Marjorie W. Aldrich, Gertrude Denison, Jane Mansfield, Ruth Noyes, Marjorie Bassett, Gertrude Seeley, Elizabeth Jenkins and Karen Erickson.

The next meeting of the club will be on Monday evening, March 1st. Mr. Paul S. Eckoff, U.S.N.R., will talk on "Work of the U. S. O."

NEWTON COMMUNITY CLUB

"What This Time Expects of Women" is the interesting title of Dr. Margaret Matheson Poole's talk on Feb. 25th. This meeting will be held at 2 o'clock at the Newton Y. M. C. A. instead of at the Underwood School, as the latter place is being used the entire week for food ration registration.

Mrs. Ralph M. Patterson is chairman of the committee in charge of the food sale which will take place at the close of the meeting.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, February 17, 1888
The plastering of Bacon's new block in Newton is completed and the flooring, counters and other wood work are being put in.

The addition which is being made to the Hotel Hunnewell, Newton, will make the building three stories high throughout. The addition will contain 3 pleasant chambers, and will furnish further accommodations, which have been needed for some time.

The latest invention in telephones is called the Pulsion telephone, of which Mr. L. Millet is the inventor and manager, and quite a large number have already been introduced in this city. They are certainly a vast improvement over the Bell machine, as it is always possible to hear what the man at the other end is saying, and there are no batteries to get out of order. The price of these pulsion telephones is very low, and they are likely to come into general use.

There are 400 boxes at the post office in Newtonville, but they have all been taken for some months, and many applicants have had to be turned away.

Permanent? Yes. Photographs exhibited out-doors in the sun over a year stood the test well, only the paper discolored slightly. Otherwise the prints were as good as new. They were made by Oden Fritz, the photographer in Newton.—Adv.

There are rumors of some large land sales, dependent on the new boulevard from Lower Falls to Chestnut Hill, which it is supposed that the commission considering the subject will recommend, and if the boulevard question should be acted upon, it is evident the coming season will see more activity in the real estate market than Newton has ever known.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, February 15, 1918

Lincoln's Birthday was the date selected by the Newton Highlands Improvement Association for the Annual Village Night and 400 persons attended Lincoln Hall which was decorated with flags to honor the Newton Highlands young men now in the service.

The public hearing on bathing facilities for the city of Newton, resolved itself, as it had done, twice before, in a half friendly, half bitter contest, between the village of Newton Centre and the Newton Highlands. The matter of public bathing in Crystal Lake, Newton Centre residents wanted supervised bathing in the Lake, incidentally, at the Highlands end, while Newton Highlands residents were strongly opposed to making that part of the Lake a second Revere Beach.

NEWTON NURSING DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

Mrs. John F. Brown of Auburndale presided over the annual meeting of the Newton District Nursing Association, held at headquarters, 297 Walnut, Newtonville. Annual reports were heard by the many directors and members, and at this time, those present were introduced to Miss Amy Day, the Association's new secretary. The reports were inspiring, and that of the Executive Director, Miss Hilga Nelson, showed the progress of the Association to be outstanding. She mentioned the great need of medical and nursing care for the worker in war production plants, stating that his health was of primary importance. Of no less importance, however, is the work of the Association in the field of mother and child care. Miss Margaret Davis of the Deaconess Hospital gave a brief but illuminating talk on the Nurse in the present emergency. She discussed the new organization of nurse power from the National, State and Local angles. In this connection, it is interesting to note that a joint committee on Nursing for War Service is now functioning in Newton and that considerable publicity about this committee will be forthcoming. Miss Davis felt that it is of utmost importance to be able to draw upon the large field of old graduate nurses to assist in the community, releasing the recent graduates to the armed forces, who need 163 nurses per month. One out of every four nurses graduating from schools of nursing will go into the armed forces. Luxury nursing is out for the duration, and probably for ever.

New directors elected to serve on the Board of the Association are: Mrs. David C. Ditmore, Mrs. Sheldon Dunlop, Mrs. Winslow Howland, Mrs. Elmore I. MacPhie and Mrs. Quincy Wales.

NEWTONVILLE GARDEN CLUB

The Newtonville Garden Club will hold its next meeting at 10 a. m. Feb. 25, 1943, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Onkes, 6 Bowers St. Mrs. F. A. Wightman will speak on "New Garden Books."

Washington—Since November, military observers have hesitated to accept full possibilities seemingly latent in the Russian advance, and yet these possibilities have steadily grown wider as the advance has continued with almost incredible speed. And now the news is coming that the line that Hitler started his 1942 offensive from is growing signs that Axis morale is beginning to crack at home.

The seriousness of this threat is indicated by the Nazis' attempt to win by politics what they fear they can no longer win by military action. In an article published last week in his own newspaper, Goebbels draws a dark picture of a Germany defeated by Communism and Russia. He warns that the Army will not stop at the German border but will sweep on to the British Isles.

Thus did Herr Goebbels attempt to turn defeat into a political weapon and compel the United States and Britain to "rescue Europe from the threat of Bolshevism." Seems to us we've heard that story before!

America's great production army is not going to go hungry this year. Despite the fact that one-fourth of our entire food production for 1943 has been allotted to our armed forces and our fighting allies, civilians will have enough to eat; and not only enough, but sufficient to maintain a diet up to nutrition standards. The civilian population cooperated by buying and eating only his or her fair share.

It is true that many familiar foods will be harder than usual to get. Fewer varieties of food will be available too. But that only presents a challenge to the nation's cooks and the packers of lunch boxes to think up new ideas for preparing the foods which are available in appetizing and nutritious ways.

Food production goals for this year are higher than ever. But they can be met more acreage planted with health-giving foods. . . . less acreage for foods which may taste pleasant but have little nutritive value. It is the health-giving foods—those rich in protein, iron and vitamins—which are so badly needed by our armed forces and our fighting allies if they are to continue their splendid march toward victory. The more of these which can be sent to them, the longer and stronger they can fight, and every fighting ally who remains in the battle means the saving of many American soldiers.

In the move to protect 16 and 17 year olds moving into war work, the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor has issued two pamphlets defining those jobs in the ship-building and lead-using industries that are unsafe for young workers.

The outline of safe-versus-unsafe jobs contained in these pamphlets is offered to industry as an advisory standard, and the Bureau urges the voluntary cooperation of employers in adopting the training and employment practices suggested.

The standards pamphlets—entitled "Which Jobs For Young Workers" have been put together on the basis of complete investigation by the Bureau's safety engineers to determine whether young and inexperienced workers are endangering their lives and health by doing specific jobs. Similar standards will be set up for all war industries in which young workers are employed.

Men's Club of Newton Hlds.

Despite the severity of the weather, one of the largest gatherings of the season enjoyed the February dinner meeting of the club at 6:30 p. m., Tuesday, the 16th, at the Parish House, Congregational Church.

An amendment to the By-Laws was voted. By this addition, the retiring president will be a member of the Executive Committee for the year following his term as president.

One of the features of the meeting, a distinct novelty, was thoroughly enjoyed. Muri Daniels, a master of rapid transformation, selected men from the audience and made them up into striking characterizations.

The speaker of the evening was Col. Charles Wellington Furlong, a favorite of the lecture platform, who has entertained many audiences in the East and other parts of the country. His subject was "The Middle East—The Vital Point of the War." He portrayed a vivid picture of the past, present future developments of this section already replete with historical accomplishments.

Announcement was made that the next meeting of the Executive Committee would be held Tuesday, the 23rd, at 8 p. m., at the home of President Sidney H. Baylor.

Wm. P. Sullivan, Jr., of 125 Beacon ave., has been commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the U. S. Army. He received his commission in the Tank Destroyers. He was graduated from the Officer Candidates School at Camp Hood, Texas, on Feb. 4.

H. P. Hood Co. Enters 97th Year

H. P. Hood and Sons announced this week the beginning of their 97th birthday in the dairy business.

The intervening years since 1846 when Harvey P. Hood began distributing milk in Charlestown has seen many changes in dairy methods. Many of the things we accept as commonplace today were first introduced. The glass bottle for instance was first used by Hood's in the late 90's. Up to that time the milk was dispensed along the route from large cans. Housewives dashed out with pail-buckets or any handy container to get their daily supply.

About the same time Louis Pasteur developed the now famous pasteurization process for destroying bacteria in wines. Soon this process was applied to milk with a notable drop in the infant death rate.

As newly discovered methods were introduced the Hood Company tested them carefully and if found put them into daily use. Not only did the company adopt the sound improvements developed by others but instituted many protective precautions of their own, for instance, weekly medical examinations of all dairy plant employees and to be certain that they were in good health. For some time, now, Hood employees have been examined every week by a practicing physician.

Constant laboratory tests of Hood products and inspection of farms are but two of the modern procedures aimed at the protection of milk and other dairy products.

Changes have occurred in the distribution methods, also. The familiar milk horse and wagon had all but disappeared from the streets when the war started and has only returned where deliveries are near the dairy plant.

The handling of milk on the routes is also an important protection. In summer months every load is iced to keep it cool while in winter it is protected against freezing.

The Company has grown from a small one-route, one-man business in 1846, to a New England institution today employing over 4,300 men and women and distributing the produce of over 5,000 New England farms.

The same family has directed the Company for three generations—the present head being Harvey P. Hood, 2nd. Another grandson of the founder is Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., Vice-President and Treasurer of the Company.

A Proclamation

By His Honor
MAYOR PAUL M. GODDARD

The American Red Cross is pressing forward on every front, standing shoulder to shoulder with our fighting forces from training camp to the front lines—understanding and helping with the problems and troubles of the service men and their families—sharing the dangers of combat and making weary days of convalescence more bearable.

It is training our people on the home front to meet the new needs and grim civilian dangers of modern warfare—organizing and sustaining thousands of production groups where our women give long hours to provide surgical dressings and clothing in enormous quantities so needed.

The President of the United States has proclaimed March 1943 as Red Cross Month, and I earnestly urge the public-spirited people of Newton to contribute as generously as possible to the 1943 War Fund to be raised in March.

To Newton has been assigned a quota of $115,000 of which $80,000 goes to National groups, and the remaining $35,000 covers the needs of our local chapter from October 1, 1942 to March 1, 1944. I am confident that we will meet this challenge as we have always met similar challenges in the past, but our gifts must be larger than ever this year in order to enable this great organization to meet the demands now made upon it at home and abroad.

PAUL M. GODDARD,
Mayor of Newton.

February 19, 1943.

Treasurer Speaks On Financial Structure of City

Mr. Clarence C. Colby, Treasurer of the City of Newton, pictured very clearly with the use of graphs, various phases of the handling of the city finances at the meeting Monday, Feb. 15. He pointed out that the lack of income through taxes during the first part of the year made it necessary to borrow money to meet the $500,000 per month expenses. This borrowing has been done at the extremely low rate of .0423 per cent interest in 1941, whereas this year it has increased to .38 per cent. Notwithstanding the remarkable improvements which our city enjoys, our indebtedness is being continually reduced. The beautiful and inspiring City Hall Building will be paid for in the next five years, and other bonds which cover mainly sewer extension, schools, and waterworks will be largely retired in the next ten years. 83 per cent of current expenses go, in order, to the following six departments: Schools, street (Bonds and interest), Welfare, Police and Fire. The revenue from taxes is collected in the following percentages: from Real Estate 83 per cent; personal property, 8.82 per cent; Motor Excise 7 per cent, and Poll 91 per cent. There is an extremely small amount which is not collected within a two-year period. One of Mr. Colby's projects for the future is to have the city's foreclosed property handled more efficiently.

Because of the holiday last Monday the weekly meeting was omitted.

On the assumption that those who did not pay the tax last year would decline to pay it this year, the assessors will refrain from assessing them in order to eliminate the work of sending out bills and having to abate them at the end of the year.

The total number of poll taxes assessed in Newton in 1942 was 23,019, an increase of 402 over the previous year.

Plans Practically Complete For 1943 Red Cross War Fund Campaign In Newton

With plans practically completed for the 1943 Red Cross War Fund Campaign Charles B. Floyd, chairman, announced that nearly 1,500 volunteers have enrolled to aid in the drive for $115,000, Newton's quota.

"Not since the last war have the people of Newton been given such a challenge—such a chance to prove that they can carry on at home to support the loyal men and women who have left our city to join the armed forces," said Mr. Floyd. "To Newton has been assigned a quota of $115,000 of which $80,000 goes for national needs and the remaining $35,000 to cover the needs of our local chapter for a 17 month period from Oct. 1, 1942 to March, 1944. This is not a membership drive but a War Time Emergency Campaign and I am sure that, as in the past, the citizens of Newton will meet the City's quota by giving their contribution through the Newton Chapter."

The sum of $115,000 has been apportioned to the Villages as follows: Auburndale $7,625, Chestnut Hill $5,325, Newton $22,140, Newton Centre and Thompsonville $14,575, Newton Highlands $6,250, Newton Lower Falls $350, Newton Upper Falls $645, Newtonville $11,450, Nonantum $1,455, Oak Hill $3,840, Waban $10,475, Waban Hill $2,070, West Newton $25,800.

Working with Mr. Floyd on the Newton Committee are Neil Leonard and Rev. John A. Sheridan, vice-chairmen; Mrs. Henry T. Patch, executive secretary for South Side; Mrs. Walter Welling, Jr., executive secretary for north side; Thomas E. Shirley, chairman of special gifts; Thomas V. ## Brotherhood Of Man Discussed At Kiwanis Meeting

President James Riggs announced at the meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club last Tuesday that the next meeting of the officers and directors would be held next Monday evening, March 1st, at the Log Cabin Inn in Waltham.

Ed MacCloskey was a visitor at the meeting last Tuesday and was a guest of Bob Heath. George Van Buskirk, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, called the attention of the members to the Penny Sale and Ladies' Night entertainment which would be held on Tuesday evening, March 9th, at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Those on the committee making the arrangements are George Van Buskirk, chairman, Archie Bellinger, Clarence Hutchings, John W. Cable and Jack Janse.

President Roosevelt has designated the week of February 19th to 28th as Brotherhood Week. In accordance with this program, Lieutenant Colonel Frank C. Rideout, retired chaplain of the United States Army, spoke on the subject, "A Perpetuation of Democracy Depends upon the Practice of the Brotherhood of Man."

Colonel Rideout was commissioned in 1917, served in France with the A. E. F. and was one of the army chaplains who remained in the service after the first World War struggle was over. Colonel Rideout said that a chaplain's work in peace time was largely to interpret for the young men in our military forces the ideals of American democracy. He described how his work for many years had been to speak on this subject several times a week to groups varying in size from 25 to 2,000 men.

He called attention to the fact that our boys in the service were willing to die for this country which they believe to be the best under God's heaven because it is established upon the principles of liberty, justice and goodwill. He decried the confusion and the misunderstanding which is prevalent throughout the world today and which is fundamentally the cause of all conflicts. This confusion, he said, exists to a certain extent in America today. He said that George Washington was perhaps one of the greatest intellectuals of his time and that he helped to found this nation based upon the principles that governments derived their just powers from the consent of the governed and that under this arrangement we should go forward in the spirit of friendly cooperation, tolerance and unselfishness, that we should maintain these principles which have built up this great country, until a better plan comes along.

He said that America was recognized today as the world's greatest exponent of democracy. As an example of this he said that all chaplains in the armed service urged Catholics, Jews and Protestants to live up to the teachings of their own and that America is one country in which this can be done.

The speaker praised the work of the United Service Organizations in this war as an example of where all of the service organizations are now cooperating and working together efficiently and as a step along the line of greater understanding and a closer brotherhood.

In conclusion the speaker stated that while America consists of people from 50 different races, that we could live together in harmony under the principle that while we agreed to differ, we were united to serve.

Mr. Benjamin Louis, Chairman of the Program Committee, announced that the speaker next week would be Mr. Gallagher, General Manager of the Boston Better Business Bureau.

AN EXPRESSION OF CONFIDENCE FROM THE CHAPTER'S FIRST SECRETARY

The following letter from Mrs. Marcus Marston, the Chapter's first Secretary, to Mr. Cabot should be an inspiration to us all. "... My thoughts wander back to Clara Barton's visit to Grace Church in Newton, the few feeble first aid classes that followed—then the 1st War Call for Red Cross help—the sprouting into action of the little seeds planted long years before by Clara Barton. Our small but vigorous beginnings in the Talbot House—our wonderful chairmen who piloted us on to the war's end with results which we were not ashamed, and NOW! The grand spirit of the Newton workers, the inspiration given them by the new Red Cross house, and the list of all that is being accomplished. Is it any wonder that this old timer is thrilled and that I feel that I just want to express to you, and through you to the others in the Chapter, my appreciation of the splendid work that is being done."

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS IN ACTION

Not since the last war have the people of Newton been given such a challenge—such a chance to prove that they can carry on at home to support the loyal men and women who have left our city to join the armed forces. Today, there are some five to six million men in the service—well over 5000 men in this group are from Newton. We must keep faith with them.

To Newton has been assigned a quota of $115,000, of which $80,000 goes for national needs, and the remaining $35,000 covers the needs of our local chapter for a seventeen month period, from October 1, 1942 to March 1, 1944.

The allotment of $80,000, as Newton's contribution to the National Fund, is based on the experience of the greatest organization ever created for the relief of human suffering wherever it occurs. It is likewise based on the city's record of the past, its ability to contribute, and a fair apportioning of the load we should bear of the national fund of $125,000,000.

The $35,000 for Chapter needs covers a period of seventeen months of service which vitally affects the health, welfare and happiness of hundreds—yes, if the casualty lists get heavier—of thousands in the community.

You may be called upon to give your services in making our Newton campaign a success—you will be asked to make an increased contribution to the fund. Whatever the request—whether for time or dollars or both—give to the limit of your ability. Help Newton to meet its quota by giving your contribution through the Newton Chapter. A volunteer campaign worker will call upon you—be ready then to help keep your Red Cross in action.

This is not a membership drive but a wartime emergency campaign. Give generously so that the tasks which lie ahead may be done in the way Newton citizens want them to be done, and as our Nation needs them to be done.

1500 VOLUNTEERS ENROLL TO AID CAMPAIGN

With plans practically complete for the 1943 War Fund Campaign, Mr. Charles B. Floyd, chairman, announced that nearly 1500 volunteers have enrolled to aid in the drive for $115,000—$80,000 of which is to go to the national fund, and $35,000 of which is for the Chapter needs for a 17-month period. ## POLITICS WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

National Unity

I propose to spend a little time this week thinking out loud about the vital subject of national unity. First of all, I'd like to know just how President Roosevelt expects to create national unity by invariably taking a lousy whack at every Republican who has the temerity to suggest that the national administration ever makes any mistakes. We are told that it is quite proper to have a party of "loyal opposition," (whatever that may mean) but that it is definitely NOT proper to indulge in "party criticism," party politics, etc. Well, who is to decide what constitutes "loyal opposition" as compared with partisan criticism? That seems to be the crux of the whole matter. Frankly, I think the entire business is bunk. Neither the President nor the leaders of Congress can tolerate the slightest criticism. That has been obvious for a long, long time. I ask my readers to advise me of a single important instance in which the national administration has publicly thanked the Republican party or any of its important leaders for making constructive suggestions or indulging in constructive criticism.

Now, let's get down to cases. Our President has a pet word, "sneer," which he uses frequently to indicate his keen annoyance with any and all critics. He used it on Washington's Birthday, when he referred somewhat acridly to those who question his ability to eliminate want and fear from the world at large. Personally, I think that this particular word is anything but conducive to unity. It is almost a fighting word. Here is another sample. Our vice-president, Mr. Wallace, had the atrocious taste to have some bricks at the head of the olive living for mer President of these United States who belongs to the party of "loyal opposition." Mr. Hoover may have made a lot of mistakes, but so, too, has Mr. Roosevelt, as future historians will undoubtedly record in their imperishable books. Why, however, utilize Washington's Birthday as a sounding-board for Mr. Wallace's personal distaste for a man who has held a higher office than the weird Mr. Wallace will ever hold? How Adolf Hitler would utilize such a thing as that particular speech.

What will be the effect of these two speeches on Congress? Even a child must realize that the national administration is gravely concerned over the behavior of the present Congress, which has turned over a new leaf and discarded all tendencies to be another rubber stamp Congress. Present indications are that there will be an organized coalition of Republicans and anti-administration Democrats which will have sufficient votes to either check or block such bills as the coalition may decide to concentrate on. Incidentally, the immediate reaction of Congress to the latest administration speeches is not very favorable to the powers that be. At long last, Congress threatens to pass some much-needed labor legislation as well as some constructive tax legislation. Most important of all, perhaps, is the report of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee, of which Sen. McFarland, Democrat, of Arizona is acting chairman, on the McKellar bill, which will require presidential appointments and Senatorial confirmation of all federal employees receiving more than $4,500 a year. Mr. Roosevelt has already voiced his "unqualified opposition" to this measure. Think that over. Of course, the bill has not yet passed and it may never pass. If Mr. Roosevelt is correct when he states that it would "turn the clock back" on the civil service system, there is grave question as to the wisdom of passage of the bill. My purpose in citing this specific case is merely to illustrate the independence of our Congress.

Post-War Politics

It is not too early to do some constructive thinking about post-war politics. How many of my readers have taken the trouble to try to visualize the return of some ten to twelve million soldiers, sailors and marines and other members of the armed forces, not to mention a substantial number of WAVES, WAACs, SPARS, etc.? What do you suppose some of these men are now thinking about items such as this, taken from the morning Herald? "Absenteeism closes two plants in Lowell," followed by a story of a shoe company and a food company, employing about 500 people and carrying a good percentage of war orders. Both plants were forced to suspend work for the day because such a small number of employees reported for duty. Imagine what men who suffered on Bataan and at Guadalcanal will do to men like that. And just think what they will do to labor leaders and politicians who are afraid to tackle the manpower problem at its real source. (See Pegler's column of Feb. 23 on "mock-work," which is, APPARENTLY, approved by Mr. Roosevelt.)

Another item. How about lowering the vote age to 18 years or, possibly, 20? I am quite aware of the stock arguments against such a proposal. However, I cannot quite reconcile the idea of drafting boys of 18 to fight for Uncle Sam and very likely die for him, and then telling these same boys that they are not old enough or intelligent enough to cast a vote. I know plenty of people who are 30, 40 and 50 years of age, who are not more intelligent, in a broad sense, than these same soldiers, sailors and marines. I strongly favor a liberalization of the voting privilege.

Finally, I predict that the politicians of the next few decades will be men of far more courage and independence than the current crop. There will be fewer words and promises and far more action. Also, I think that there will be a program for teaching the practice as well as the theory of government in every state in the union. This is as it should be. The general intelligence level of legislatures will be raised, NOT by the election of a group of men, but by the election of a group of men, but by the election of the same cross-section of citizens now in office, all of whom will have more knowledge of the whys and wherefores of government and all of whom will approach the problems of government with a fresher and more vigorous point of view. I hope and believe that we will enjoy an era of debunked politics—an era in which men and women may take an active part in politics without having the stigma of the phrase "professional politician" hurled at them.

This WEEK, This WORLD

by Ted Friend

THE GREAT "SQUEEZE PLAY" IS ON! The political knifing of Federal Prosecutor Maloney, in his action against subversive elements, as engineered by the copperhead group in Congress; the National Association of Manufacturers' ukase against organized labor and Rickenbacker's cries into the wilderness on the same general theme; Rep. Clare Luce's impudent smear of WAVES, WAACs, SPARS, etc.; Vice-President Wallace; Senator Dies' stepped up leadership of the reactionary forces in Congress; the defeat of Poll Tax legislation by the southern pro-peonage contingent; the resurgence of the so-called America First Committee with the old slogans but headed by new frontmen; Rep. Clare Hoffman's obscene support of American fascists; the de-bunking of the British and Russian by the Pattersons, McCormicks and other billionaire publishers. These are a few of the many straws in the wind which indicate the general pattern of reaction now setting itself to take over the government—and to consolidate the peace—in the historic days which are just around the corner.

Not least in the campaign which has as its objective the liquidating of the liberal forces in the American scene is the insidious drive against newspaperman Walter Winchell, which recently culminated in the throttling and censoring of the Blue Network executives. Symptoms of an earlier parallel drive against Winchell were the character pot-shots contrived by labor-baiter Westbrook Pegler; the Bourbon-inspired, attacks of newspaper owner, "Clips" Patterson of the isolationist clan; the filthy whispering campaign relating to his non-salary Navy service, set in motion by some of his lesser journalistic competitors; and the out-and-out fulminations of subversive and even traitorous elements with axes to grind or rackets to exploit.

One need have no personal acquaintance with or liking for Winchell to concede that of all those who have had newspaper space at their disposal he has turned in the most effective job against Totalitarianism, Bundism, Shintism, Frontiers, Copperheads, Klansmen and their varicolored hangers-on, since Hitler and his cohorts first unleashed their hydra-headed menace on the American people.

And when Winchell, Clapper, Lippmann, Thompson, Pearson, Sandburg, Van Loon, Grafton and other newspaper people of aloft vision were keeping lit and aloft some of the lights all over the map, Hitler and his cohorts first unleashed their hydra-headed menace on the American people.

Rep. Hamilton Fish was busy himself cutting out paper dolls in the intellectual company of the now jailed traitor George Sylvester Viereck! Rep. Clare Hoffman was pouring oil on the flames of Hitler's troubled waters, voting against the fortification of Guam, and otherwise breathing up Hitler's back! The pontifical Westbrook Pegler was giving resounding cheers for the institution of the "new" war-time splitting of the labor unions! Bob Reynolds, that paragon of senatorial mediocrity, was whitewashing the notorious Lizzie Dillingham, and Wheeler, Nye, Taft, Clark, Landon, Johnson, Brooks and other irrationalists, were engaging in a delaying tactic which all but German agents in the United States, and the world with it, at fascism's feet.

FOR YOUR MENTAL NOTEBOOK... Of the 1,745 sailings of Lend-Lease materials in the past year, 375 were to Britain, 304 to Russia and 66 to China. There was not one single day or night throughout January in which the RAF was not in action against Germany, Italy and occupied territory... Chinese military experts were of the opinion that the Soviets will be able to push the Nazis back onto German territory by the end of the year, if not sooner... Sixty per cent of the total male population of Australia is either in the fighting forces or in war work... All German administrative offices in occupied Holland have been evacuated from The Hague as a precaution against United Nations invasion... Of the 91,000 Germans captured by the Russians at Stalingrad over 2,500 were officers. Of these, 24 were generals among whom were two colonel-generals and one field-marshal general.

BEG IT, borrow it, or buy it... but READ IT!... "Appenement's Club" by Thomas J. Hamilton (Knopf), which graphically records the tragedy of Franco's Spain. An indictment of the Spanish form of Fascism it spotlights Franco's failure to heal the breaches between the people or eradicate the wreckage, social inequality and starvation.

QUOTE-OF-THE-MONTH Club... "The Soviet offensive will not be allowed to go one inch further than the Germans want it to go!" (From a Rome broadcast analyzing the current fighting in Russia.)

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS facing Congress in writing a pay-as-you-go tax system is the windfall and escape from tax on which it will give to many in the upper brackets whose income in 1942 was substantial, and even on the profiteering side, but whose salary in 1943 will be more nearly within war-time reason. Classic case pointed out by anti-Rummler congressman is that of champion

Joe Louis whose 1942 income was over $100,000 but who in 1943 will net less than $1,000!

COMING HEADLINES... The United Nations will turn out more than 100,000 airplanes in 1943... The OPA will announce its profit limit program next month... Meat and cheese may be rationed as one unit with a total of two pounds per person... Men between the ages of 38 and 45 will shortly be faced with the alternative of going into essential industry or joining the armed forces... Arthur Schofield, United States Minister to Finland, will soon return to that country with a plan which will definitely place Finland on the United Nations side... The government is expected soon to offer bonuses for extra production... The Dutch rationer is grinding a total of 100 million extra coffee substitutes... King Victor Emmanuel of Italy may soon pop up in an Allied capital with the objective of setting up a government-in-exile.

55 YEARS AGO

At the last meeting of the Newton Bicycle Club it was voted to change the club cloth. The old familiar Canada gray homespun, which was first brought out by the Newton Bicycle Club, and was familiar to cyclists in the early annals of cycling, will be seen no more on the road.

The flag was raised from the house of steamer No. 1, union down on Wednesday, and it caught about half way up and could not be moved. The sign of distress brought a number of sympathizing friends to see what ailed the company, and finally a telephone man was found to climb the pole and take the flag down.

33 young ladies belonging to the Aetna Mills enjoyed a sleigh-ride down the Arsenal road and built dam one night last week in a boat sleigh, returning by way of Allston and Brighton. They partook of supper at the Allston Hotel kept by one of our former citizens, A. H. Bedell.

50 YEARS AGO

The convent and parochial school buildings of the parish of the Church of Our Lady, Newton, are nearly completed. The workmen are now engaged on the interior finish.

The handsome chancel furniture in the new Trinity Church, Newton Centre, is being shipped to all made by H. A. Scranton, of Cambridgeport. They are all made of the finest quartered oak, and they are models of fine workmanship.

Morse's Paper Mill started this week after a thorough overhauling and will turn out grained wall paper. The machines are kept running in the daytime only at present.

25 YEARS AGO

The local exemption board has been busily engaged this week in hearing the reasons given by registrants who have thus far failed to fill out and send in their questionnaires and the police have done splendid work in faring out and bringing in the delinquents.

President Wilson with his happy facility of expression has put the whole case in a nutshell when he telegraphed to the striking ship workers: "Will you co-operate or will you obstruct?" Let us take this admonition right home to ourselves. Are you co-operating or obstructing the great work of winning the war?

AUBURDALE MEN'S CLUB

A meeting of the Auburdales Men's Club will be held in the Auburdales Congregational Church on Monday evening, March 1st at 6:30 o'clock.

The speaker will be Mr. George H. Rockwell of the United-Care Fastener Corporation of Cambridge. Mr. Rockwell has been active in the industrial life of Cambridge for many years and is well known for his participation in the administration of humanitarian projects in Metropolitan Boston and the State.

His subject at the Men's Club meeting will be "England in 1942." For several months Mr. Rockwell was in England during the summer and fall of 1942 on a mission which gave him an unusual opportunity for close personal contact with a cross section of English life. This experience has led him to believe in the need for a better understanding between the British and the people of this country.

"LUCE-TALK" versus "GLOBALONEY"—British, French and American boys in Africa, and Russian boys around Rostov, in the Caucasus and other parts of the vast Russian front, were laying down their lives for their country and ours, when Rep. Clare Booth Luce (R. Conn.), 39 year old glamour girl, rose to make her maiden "globaloney" speech in the House of Representatives. The speech, occasioned by a resolution before the House for a permanent joint committee on civil and commercial aviation, gave political malcontents and "former" isolationists a new word to roll around their tongue. To subversive elements it gave hope that a new copperhead had been born in Congress.

Hitting at Vice President Wallace's assertion that freedom of the air means to the future what freedom of the seas meant to the past, the novice politician's first words were phrased to instill fear and distrust of our allies. Great Britain and Russia, he attempted to blast the "all-out cooperationists" who, according to the lady, "have begun to shoot the works for a bigger and redder and more royal New Deal." It was also meant as a condemnation of Wallace's vision of enraging commies to the people of the world. The people who at this very moment are helping us fight the Nazis and the Japs. To political observers in Washington, Clare Booth Luce is a typical example of the small-time publicity seeking politician who doesn't care a hoot about human rights as long as her own selfish ends are accomplished. American political history tells of vested interests who sought to discredit those who held the nation's interest in foreign years. Many were marked with the Luce sign. But history also shows that in spite of the copperheads, the Wallaces, Willies and other progressives of the past remained loyal to their trusts. And today Congressmen of equal stature, Democrats and Republicans, are constituting a new group, fighting regardless of how many "glamour girls" enter the portals of Congress.

This column may not find it necessary to dwell again on the doings and sayings of this political figure, but it is a pity that the gesture that Clare Booth Luce gave the Ted Friend "Brass Medal of the Month" for the most selfish and shortsighted maiden speech heard in recent weeks. Or is the young lady merely suffering from political Clare de Lune?

WALTER PIERCE PREDICTS: The original Ruml tax plan will not be adopted, but some sort of pay-as-you-go plan will pass, probably Doughton's... War Labor Board will probably be first victim of the new Congress. And investigating executive agencies... Mr. Smith dislikes its policies... A nation-wide drive to reduce absenteeism in war industries... Half a dozen government agencies are now studying the problem. Present ban on pleasure driving in the east may be extended, with some modification to the whole country... Butter rationing, when it comes, will be around 0.6 ounces per person per day. Meat under two pounds per person and week... The Nazi strength can never again be what it was. Thank the Soviets for that. It means that tens if not hundreds of thousands of American lives need not be sacrificed. Our casualties in Africa, however, will be heavy. Germans are well entrenched in North Africa and will for a surprise blow against Japan shortly. The President's recent talks seem to confirm it.

Overwhelming evidence from Italy points to an Italian peace feeler via the Vatican. But political and military specialists in Washington take the view that Italy cannot now get out of the war, and in a sense is as much a prisoner of Hitler as other Nazi occupied countries.

Further reports from London that the Pope has asked the United Nations to consider Rome an open city will, if true, be respect- ed. Rome, capital of the Catholic world and city of which the Pope is Bishop, completely surrounds the Vatican and Mussolini's son-in-law, Count Ciano, was re- duced there. Insiders believe that appointment was meant as a means of finding a place of refuge for Mussolini and other Fascist leaders when Italy got too hot for them. Vatican City is recognized as a neutral sovereign state by all belligerents.

BRIEFS: Remember that regardless of what is done in Washington in the pending tax discussions, Federal income tax returns must be filed on or before mid- night, March 15... The Federal Church of Christ is sending 200,000 copies of Dorothy Cromwell's booklet on marriage to U. S. armed forces. It advises men in uniforms not to postpone their marriages until the peace is won... Small labels showing a skeleton carrying a swastika being pasted on walls in Warsaw, Poland. Over the skeleton's head is printed "Deutschland Kaput—GERMANY IS FINISHED." Miss LeHand, the President's secretary, is now almost fully recovered from her recent illness... Paul McNutt is not making much headway in his rearguard fight to cut down army and navy manpower and to compel change of plans for drafting college boys... The President's policy of dealing gently with the new Congress is not yet bringing results. The attitude of many politicians there still remains one of hostility to the Executive.

Letters To The Editor
LET US HAVE A WORLD FEDERATION
Editor, Newton Graphic:
Next Wednesday, March 3, at 10:30 A. M. Resolution favoring World Federation will be voted upon in our Legislature. Last November the people of this state by a 70 per cent vote urged the passing of this resolution. Now is our chance to put Massachusetts into a constitutional act, for international law enforced by world democracy.
Permanent peace will not just happen. It will forever die stillborn unless it is brought to birth by the same kind of heroic thinking and constitutionally sound action that made our own America free from interstate wars. Today the scale is wider, the principle is the same. Are we worthy our statesmen-forefathers or are we contemptible wealth-grabbers willing to bequeath our children the horrors of yet more total wars?
Let us each take this responsibility. Let us write to Senator Bowen, and to Representatives Patrick and Rawson (Wards 1, 2, 3, 7) and Francis and Spear (Wds. 4, 5, 6). And let us storm the State House next Wednesday. We cannot gamble with safety. We MUST make this the last war.
Respectfully yours,
MARY BACON MASON.
31 Pleasant St.,
Newton Centre.
February 16, 1943.
Now that the Greater Boston United War Fund is over we have a chance to appraise the many elements which definitely contributed to its success. At the head of the list in my mind stands the constant and sincere support of the press in the metropolitan communities.
I am particularly grateful for the consistent coverage on Campaign news given to us by the NEWTON GRAPHIC. Only with a cooperative press can the great political enterprise succeed. I am happy indeed to list the NEWTON GRAPHIC as a part and parcel of this cooperative press.
With this letter goes my sincere appreciation for everything you have done for us.
BROOKS POTTER,
1943 Chairman

CIVILIAN DEFENSE

The Newton Report Center, Bigelow Junior High School Medical Post, the Auxiliary Police, and the Warden's from the village of Newton cooperated in a practice raid on Friday evening, Feb. 19. Air raid damage reports were telephoned to the Report Center by Post Warden's and ambulances were dispatched to bring simulated casualties to the school where they were cared for by the doctors, nurses and first aiders in attendance.

Mr. Sydney B. Holden, Testing Director for the City of Newton, was in charge of the practice. Dr. W. H. Marston, Captain of the Bigelow Medical Post, was in charge of the station and Lieut. Grace Cummings was in command of the Red Cross Motor Corps. One of the emergency canteen groups, in conjunction with the Motor Corps, was called into service and served bouillon and crackers to about 60 Medical personnel, casualties and officers, who had participated in the practice.

Air raid conditions were simulated as far as possible. The Medical Post was blacked out and the ambulances were routed to avoid streets which had been reported blocked by debris and bomb craters.

There are over 1300 women now enrolled in the War Services Division of the Newton Committee on Public Safety. This division has been organized to activate all those civilian defense activities other than Protection, with which individuals and communities must be concerned as a part of their contribution to the prosecution of the war.

In each village of the city of Newton there is a chairman, one or more Vice-Chairmen, Post Wardens, (corresponding to Post Wardens, but NOT Post Warden's) and Neighborhood Leaders. The latter are set up to have approximately a dozen families under their jurisdiction.

All of these women are volunteers whose object is the promotion of our war effort here at home and everything they suggest that the public do is entirely voluntary. They bring directly to the people of Newton such messages and information as are necessary to enable them to understand better the many war time adjustments. They also distribute essential material issued by the Office of Price Administration, War Production Board, etc.

Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy is chairman and Mrs. G. Elliott Stickney, vice-chairman of the War Services Division, Newton Committee on Public Safety.

The village chairmen are: Mrs. James Dunlop, Auburndale; Mrs. P. E. Beal, Chestnut Hill; Mrs. Sterling N. Loveland, Newton; Mrs. Albert P. Everts, Newtonville; Mrs. Worthing L. West, Newton Centre; Mrs. Alston T. Budgett, Newton Highlands; Mrs. David C. Beckman, Newton Lower Falls; Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin, Newton Upper Falls; Mrs. Mary J. Morrison, Nonantum; Mrs. George I. Engle, Oak Hill; Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, Waban; Mrs. Milton Levenson, Waban Hill; Mrs. Ernest G. Angevine, West Newton.

A quiz program to determine the knowledge and skill of the Warden's and Medical Division, the Auxiliary Firemen and Auxiliary Police will serve as a friendly contest between teams representing the fourteen cities and towns in Civilian Defense Area 5-C. Newton's four teams of contestants were selected in an elimination contest at Warren Junior High School Wednesday evening, February 24. The Warden's Team and the Medical Division Team each consists of two men and two women; the Auxiliary Firemen will be represented by four privates and a Lieutenant, while the auxiliary Police Team will consist of four patrolmen and a Sergeant.

On March 3 Newton, Wellesley, Needham, Dover, Dedham, Westwood and Norwood will engage in the preliminary contests, the semi-finals to take place March 17. Lincoln, Lexington, Arlington, Belmont, Waltham, Weston and Watertown preliminary contests will take place March 10 with the semi-finals on March 24. The finals between the winners in the first group and the second group will take place March 31 and to the winning teams in the finals will go four silver cups which have been donated by a public spirited citizen.

The Newton Auxiliary Police will hold a special meeting March 4 at Newton High School Hall. There will be a demonstration of training and a drill by the Newton Centre uniformed police unit under command of Lieut. Charles Collins followed by an inspection by Chief of Police Michael T. Hughes and by Commissioner of Auxiliary Police, Douglas B. Francis. Deputy Commissioner Haskell Cohn will announce the March training plans.

Following the inspection there will be an entertainment through the courtesy of Lieut. Sweeney of the Public Relations Office, First Naval District; Chief Machinist Glenn A. Swisher will give a personal account of his 37 day voyage in an open boat from Bataan, Philippines to Australia. Chief Petty Officer Regan will show the official Naval Department pictures in color of the battle of Midway.

A Message To The Community From Hunnewell Club

It is my hope that this message will find its way to men and women of this community and will stir in them an appreciation of the effort that the Hunnewell Club is making to be useful, under difficult conditions, and create in them a desire to help us to maintain a center for the upbuilding of morale on the home front, by furnishing an opportunity for relaxation and social activities.

We are glad that the children of a nearby church can use our warm rooms for their Sunday School classes during the critical shortage of fuel oil. We welcome the men in service to the club under the auspices of the Newton Soldiers and Sailors Committee. We are happy that we can be of service to the women of our community. We are pleased to have the Newton Auxiliary Police and other defense groups use our rooms for their meetings.

We must have, however, the wider support of those who live in the neighborhood if we are to carry on.

May I express the hope that you will carry this message to your neighbors and friends, and urge them to join with us in our efforts to serve.

Sincerely yours,
CLARENCE C. COLBY, President

February 19th, 1943

Entertainment For Service Men

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee it was unanimously voted to send a band to the Newton Soldiers & Sailors Committee for the entertainment of service men on one Sunday a month.

It is planned by the Committee to invite the men in small groups to private homes for Sunday dinner and afterwards to gather at the club with an equal number of Junior Hostesses to enjoy the club's facilities until six-thirty.

After a light supper to be provided by the Committee, an entertainment will be given, followed by dancing until nine-thirty.

Mrs. F. Marsena Butts and Mrs. Carlos Pierce are co-chairmen for Newton Village.

Women's Club Meetings

It is a matter of genuine pleasure to find that the Club House is increasing in favor with the women of this community as a center for their activities.

For several weeks now the Social Science Club has been holding its meetings in the lounge room on the lower floor of the club, and has found it a very pleasant place to gather for their bi-monthly discussions. It is rumored that other women's organizations are considering the club's use. We welcome this trend and express the hope that the women of this section of Newton will help to make the club a real community center.

The drastic regulations on the use of automobiles established early in the year caused the Executive Committee to cancel the scheduled theatricals and other parties during the end of January and to make a careful survey of conditions before planning for the spring months. It believes, however, that the members will approve and support the events that are outlined.

Storm Troopers Flee Storm Troopers

Special patrols of Quilting's state police are searching for members of their own Storm Troopers who fled from their homes to escape being sent to the Russian front. When they joined, there was no hint that they would have to do anything more than parade through the streets and bully unarmed patriots.

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The sophomore class elections were held the first week in February. John Recco, former president of Warren Junior High School, was elected president. Richard Melick became vice-president, Jeanne Leigler secretary and Joe Robinson treasurer.

Two wind tunnels, which will test lift and drag in the Aviation-Physics classes at the Newton High School, are being constructed under Mr. Somerville's supervision by Melvin Bowman and Bill Waters. The larger of the two tunnels will test model wings; the other will test the entire model plane.

The talented Newton High Drama Club recently presented a hilarious performance of the "Dover Road." The success of this first class production was attributed to the superb coaching of Mrs. Weiss and its able cast: Lester Bixby, Morris Fried, Alice Freedy, Richard Holden, William Larkin, Betty MacGill, Richard Michaels, Constance Mosher, William O'Halloran and Barbara Simmons.

According to a plan submitted recently to English teachers from the OWI, American High School pupils may now correspond with English boys and girls of their own age.
